A Journey In Faith Parenthood 101:

A Journey in Faith Parenthood 101 David Hill,2014-02-18 PRAYING BEFORE I go to sleep at night has been a habit since childhood The night I thought of writing this book I prayed God help me have good dreams and good thoughts as I sleep tonight That is a prayer I have prayed ever since I was a child growing up During the night I started thinking of ways we should raise our children and how they need to be prepared for life I told myself I should write a book about this ways to raise a successful child I was afraid I would forget this idea by morning so I arose at 3 00 AM and went to the kitchen to start writing down my ideas I began to consider just what would be my definition of a successful child or adult I realized that it depends on whose point of view we are coming from The world defines success quite differently from God The world would say it is to be rich and famous However since we are made in the image of God it seems only logical that we should be a reflection of Him in our daily lives
