Passion's Fictions from Shakespeare to Richardson Benedict S. Robinson, 2021 Passion s Fictions traces the intimate links between literature and the sciences of mind and soul from the age of Shakespeare to the rise of the novel It chronicles the emergence of new sciences of the passions between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries and it argues that this history was shaped by rhetoric that contained the most extensively particularized discourse on the passions offering principles for moving and affecting the passions of others in concrete social scenes This rhetoric of the passions centered on narrative as the instrument of a non theoretical knowledge of the passions in their particularity predicated on an account of passion as an intimate relation between an impassioned mind and an impassioning world rhetoric offers a kind of externalist psychology formalized in the relation of passion to action and underwriting an account of narrative as a means of both moving passion and knowing it This volume describes the psychology of the passions before the discipline of psychology tracing the influence of rhetoric on theories of the passions from Francis Bacon to Adam Smith and using that history to read literary works by Shakespeare Milton Haywood Richardson and others Narrative offers a means of knowing and moving the passions by tracing them to the events and objects that generate them the history of narrative practices is thus a key part of the history of the psychology of the passions at a critical moment in its development      Passion's Lyre James Eddie Wray,1887

Divine Suspense Andreas Seland,2018-07-23 What is suspense and why do we feel it These questions are at the heart of the first part of this study It develops and defends the imminence theory of suspense the view that suspense arises in situations that are structurally defined by something essential being imminent Next the study utilizes this theory as an interpretative key to S ren Kierkegaard s seminal work Frygt og B ven FB FB is an exploration of what it means to take the story of Abraham and Isaac as a paradigmatic example of faith The study argues that a core aspect of how Kierkegaard conceptualizes faith through the figure of Abraham is suspense The argument is built upon the observation that to have faith is to be a hero To be hero means to belong to a story Stories manifests different conceptualizations of time Abraham s story as FB frames it is radically geared towards something imminent it is characterized by an essential relation of suspense The study then explores how suspense not only forms part of the conceptualization of faith but is also part of how this conceptualization is communicated Thus the study argues that there exists a symmetry of suspense between the rhetorical and the conceptual levels of the text      Passion's Lady Sara Blayne,1993-05 This captive tale introduces a mysterious miss and a ruthless earl who find themselves playing a most dangerous game She was a charming rogue an impish child And if the Earl of Shayle knew little else about the alluring woman he had rescued he knew that Marie was going to marry him But he didn t count on her deadly enemy      The Open Court Paul Carus,1890      The Imperial Dictionary of the English Language John Ogilvie,1883      Passion's Heirs Elizabeth Bright,1994      Shakespeare as a Dramatic Artist Richard Green Moulton,1888      A Dictionary of the English Language Joseph Emerson Worcester,1888      The Monastery Walter Scott,1877      The Handy Volume "Waverley" ...: The monastery Walter Scott,1877      Undine [tr.] from the Germ. by the author of 'Night' Friedrich Heinrich Karl Freiherr de La Motte-Fouqué,1884      A Dictionary of the English Language Robert Gordon Latham,1882      Constance Sherwood : an Autobiography of the Sixteenth Century :.
