

7. Open the folded paper and fold it in half lengthwise, bringing the two long sides together. Hold the two ends and push them towards each other, opening up the centre into a diamond shape and then pushing the centre folds together to form a cross. (g) (h)

8. You can now fold the points of the cross together to form the booklet. A dab of glue will hold the folded pages together. (i)

Add drawings, words or collage prints, or create small pockets.

Make a larger version in the same way with a sheet of A3 paper.

LEPORELLO OR ACCORDION BOOK

These little books are fun to make and are a great way to display your work. The pages are a folded accordion so you can use both sides. Your printed papers make attractive covers. I like to have something of a colour or pattern match for front and back but you could also use contrasting papers. Collage other prints on to the back pages or leave the pages blank to use for lineprints or stamped images, or for drawing.

YOU WILL NEED

- two square pieces of card (mountboard or card from the back of an old sketchbook) (each 12 x 12 cm)
- two square pieces of your printed paper (each 16 x 16 cm) to cover the book boards
- strip of cartridge or mixed-media paper (20 x 40 cm) (or join two strips to make this length)
- scissors
- pencil
- piece of ribbon (20 cm)
- ruler
- bone folder (optional)
- glue (glue stick, PVA glue or bookbinding glue)
- glue brush or applicator (optional)

A leporello book can be displayed on a shelf with a selection of your printed pictures on the folded pages.
