English 11a - unit 5: everybody talks

Questions and Answers

how does Frederick Douglass's repetition of you and your affect the audience's understanding of the passage? - answer the repetition emphasizes the fundamental difference between Douglass and his listeners by letting them know he does not share the same viewpoints about the importance of the fourth of July as they do.

how does the author's use of a rhetorical device in this passage contribute to the power of the text? - answer the author uses a metaphor to compare nations and streams, emphasizing the sometimes-violent changes that occur while continuing forward.

in "we shall overcome," president Johnson speaks of his first job as a teacher in a small school on the border of Mexico and America. Johnson says, "... students were poor and ... often came to class without breakfast, hungry. and they knew, even in their youth, the pain of prejudice."

what is the most likely reason that Johnson includes the anecdote in this speech? - answer the anecdote establishes his credibility because he has direct experience with those affected by inequality.

in "what to the slave is the fourth of july?" part 1, frederick douglass repeatedly addresses his audience as "fellow-citizens."

which option best states how this repetition supports douglass's purpose? - answer the repetition emphasizes douglass's purpose: to express the idea that every american has the right to be called a citizen, regardless of skin color.
