French in Action Pierre J. Capretz, Barry Lydgate, Béatrice Abetti, Marie-Odile Germain, 2015-06-28 Since it was first published French in Action A Beginning Course in Language and Culture The Capretz Method has been widely recognized in the field as a model for video based foreign language instructional materials The third edition revised by Pierre Capretz and Barry Lydgate includes new contemporary illustrations throughout and in the Documents section of each lesson more relevant information for today's students A completely new feature is a journal by the popular character Marie Laure who observes and comments humorously on the political cultural and technological changes in the world between 1985 and today The new edition also incorporates more content about the entire Francophone world In use by hundreds of colleges universities and high schools French in Action remains a powerful educational resource that this third edition updates for a new generation of learners Part 2 gives students at the intermediate level the tools they need to communicate effectively in French and to understand and appreciate French and Francophone cultures Orientations, 2021-10-18 Based on papers presented at the Fifth Triennial Conference of the International Association of Word and Image Studies IAWIS AERTI held in 2002 in Hamburg the twenty two essays in this volume cover a wide array of intermedial relations and a great variety of media from medieval architecture to interactive digital art They have been arranged in sections labeled History and Identity Cultural Memory Texts and Photographs Cultural Anthropology and Cultural Memory Mixed Media Texts Cartography in Contemporary Art and Fiction Mixed Media Texts Yellow Cover Books Artists Books and Comics Intermedia Texts Logotypes and Space Spatialization Virtual Space Displaying a range of methods and interests these contributions by scholars from Europe the United States and South America working in different disciplines confirm the impression voiced by IAWIS president Charlotte Schoell Glass in her introduction that the influence of Visual and Cultural Studies has changed the outlook of many who study the interactions of texts and images Cultures in Movement Martine Raibaud, Ionut

Untea, Micáela Symington, 2015-02-05 The contributors to this volume encourage a re thinking of the very notion of culture by examining the experiences situations and the representations of those who chose or were forced to change cultures from the nineteenth century to the present day Beyond a simple study of migration forced or otherwise this collective work also re examines the model of integration As recent entrants into new social settings may be perceived as affecting the previously accepted social equilibrium mechanisms encouraging or inhibiting population flows are sometimes put in place From this perspective integration may become less a matter of internal choice than an external obligation imposed by the dominant political power in which case integration may only be a euphemism for cultural uniformity The strategies of cultural survival developed as a reaction to such a rising tide of cultural uniformity can be seen as necessary points of departure for an ever growing shared multiculturalism A long term voluntary commitment to make cultural boundaries more flexible and allow a more engaged individual participation in the process of defining the self and finding its place within a culture in movement
