A Partisans Daughter:

A Partisan's Daughter Louis de Bernières, 2008-12-04 A beautiful and unlikely love story about what unites us from the bestselling author of Captain Corelli's Mandolin Chris is in his forties bored lonely trapped in a loveless sexless marriage He is a stranger to the 1970s youth culture of London a stranger to himself on the night he invites a prostitute into his car Roza has recently moved to London from eastern Europe She is in her twenties but has already lived a life filled with danger misadventure romance and tragedy And though she is not a prostitute when she is propositioned by Chris she gets into his car anyway Over the next few months Roza tells Chris the stories of her past She is a fast talking Scheherazade saving her own life by telling it to Chris And he takes in her tales as if they were oxygen in an otherwise airless world But is Roza telling the truth Does it even matter Sublimely funny and moving Independent A Partisan's Daughter Louis De Bernières, 2008

Women and Partisan Art Elena Messner, Cristina Beretta, Goran Lazičić, Markus Gönitzer, 2025-10-31 The resistance by partisan women in Yugoslavia and Carinthia Austria and particularly their artistic production have not been acknowledged in the historical accounts of World War II Their art was both a form of resistance and a culturally subversive practice ranging from avant garde aesthetics to traditional forms of folk art and handicraft The cultural production by and subsequently about the Yugoslav and Carinthian women partisans includes literature visual arts film photography comics textiles press theater dance and monument architecture The contributors to this volume present this groundbreaking research to mark eighty years since the victory over Nazism and fascism in Europe Jewish Partisans of the Soviet Union during World War II Jack Nusan Porter, 2021-08-31 Jewish Partisans of the Soviet Union is a classic compilation of original Russian and Jewish sources on the anti Nazi resistance in Eastern Europe It is rooted in decades of research motivated by a desire to set the record straight on Jewish participation in resistance movements a phenomenon often overlooked when not actively concealed As the son of Jewish partisans in Nazi occupied Eastern Europe Jack Porter presents here the result of his decades long research first hand accounts and interviews with survivors and partisans as well as some of their original work and a seminal English translation of Partisan Brotherhood a historical document gathered by Russian Jewish intellectuals in 1948 at the height of anti Semitic hysteria written mainly by non Jewish Soviet partisan commanders recounting the deeds of the Jewish fighters in their units Jewish Partisans Jack Nusan Porter, 1982 The Legacies of the Romani Genocide in Europe since 1945

Celia Donert, Eve Rosenhaft, 2021-12-27 This book explores the legacies of the genocide of Roma in Europe after the end of the Second World War Hundreds of thousands of people labelled as Gypsies were persecuted or killed in Nazi Germany and across occupied Europe between 1933 and 1945 In many places discrimination continued after the war was over The chapters in this volume ask how these experiences shaped the lives of Romani survivors and their families in eastern and western Europe since 1945 This book will appeal to researchers and students in Modern European History Romani Studies and the history of genocide and the Holocaust Triangle Republics I Jonathan Kief, 2025-09-16 In Korea the end of the Second World War in 1945 brought both liberation from Japanese colonial rule and the division of the nation by the triumphant Allies. The peninsula was not only decoupled from its former colonial metropole but also carved up into two halves that were subsequently incorporated into the rival blocs of the emerging Cold War order. Although the two Koreas are typically seen as isolated from each other, texts continued to circulate between them with the assistance of Korean diasporic and other colleagues in Japan throughout the ensuing decades. I Jonathan Kief follows the triangular flow of texts linking North Korea, South Korea, and Japan from 1945 until the 1980s, revealing overlooked paths of interaction and exchange. He highlights the creative ways in which poets, playwrights, novelists, critics, and academics crossed boundaries of language, ideology, genre, and geography to challenge the stability of the Cold War. By showing how writers in North and South Korea engaged in dialogue via the mediation of a multiethnic set of colleagues in Japan, Triangle Republics offers a new perspective on this era, emphasizing its vibrant, dynamic, and interconnected nature.

Russian War Films Denise Jeanne Youngblood, 2007. A panoramic survey of nearly a century of Russian films on wars and wartime from World War I to more recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Chechnya, with heavy emphasis on films pertaining to World War II.

Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola, 2024-09-11. In Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives, Ademola Adesola examines the dominant factors that writers privilege in their portrayals of child soldiering in sub-Saharan Africa. In his textual interpretive analyses of selected novels in the African child soldier genre, Adesola contends that critical discussions of African child soldier literature have depended on the interpretive frameworks supplied by Western humanitarian discourses which oversimplify and dehistoricize experiences of war in Africa. The author argues that such reductive decontextualization of war realities serve to champion a narrow vision of war in African contexts centered on a moral and humanitarian urge for Western intervention. Regardless of whether the casus belli legitimating those wars are genuine or not, those conflicts and children's involvement in them are understood within the same racist colonial and ethnocentric stereotypes about Africa that have been privileged in Western thought and the Western moral political imagination for centuries. Thus, in studying African child soldier narratives, this book provides an alternative reading of novels whose settings feature African ethno-political conflicts such as in Sierra Leone, Liberia, Congo, Brazzaville, Nigeria, notable for their exploitation of children for military ends. The author maintains that these works are significant in the varying ways they reify and challenge the Western ideas of child and childhood as well as privilege child soldiers as social actors whose intricate makeups disavow being simply understood as innocent victims or irredeemable perpetrators of atrocities.

DAUGHTER OF SILENCE, 1961 The Partisan William Gilmore Simms, 1882 Stalin's Guerrillas Kenneth Slepyan, 2006. A detailed study of the operations, politics, culture, and autonomy of Soviet partisans or guerrillas who fought the German army in WWII. Blending military, political, social, and cultural history, Slepyan also provides a prism for viewing relations between the suffocating Stalinist state and its independent partisan warriors.
