

A Good Man Is Hard to Find: Critical Analysis

Topic: Literature | Words: 834 | Pages: 3

The story A Good Man Is Hard to Find written by Flannery O'Connor is considered to be rather tragic through the author's breakage of traditional "happy ends". The short story is rich in literary devices and expressive means; O'Connor managed to create a symbolic and imaginative work provoking and stimulating the readers to various considerations. Critical analysis of the story shows that the basic theme expressed by O'Connor was that of foreshadowing highlighted through symbolism and imagination.

The centralization of Misfit at the very beginning of the story who is the killer of the family tells about the author's highlighting the concept of death. Grandmother embodied the features and feeling of death foreshadowing throughout the whole story. Not in vain the character does not want to go to Florida and being ignored she strives not to live a family even for a moment; it is like the feeling of tragedy foreshadowing and death coming presented through the grandmother.

"She wouldn't stay at home for a million buck. She has to go everywhere we go" (O'Connor, 118).

The grandmother's desire to follow every step of the family is a kind of indication that she will suffer the same end as her family. (DiYanni, 2003) The imaginary of foreshadowing was illustrated by the author through the grandmother's dress she put on for a trip.

"...a navy blue straw sailor hat with a bunch of white violets on the brim and a navy blue dress with a small white dot in the print" (O'Connor, 118).
