A Hearts War Christian Romance Story:

My Dearest Dietrich Amanda Barratt,2019-06-09 A staggering love illuminating the dark corners of a Nazi prison Renowned German pastor and theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer is famous for his resistance to the Nazi regime and for his allegiance to God over government But what few realize is that the last years of his life also held a love story that rivals any romance novel Maria von Wedemeyer knows the realities of war Her beloved father and brother have both been killed on the battlefield The last thing this spirited young woman needs is to fall for a man under constant surveillance by the Gestapo How can she give another piece of her heart to a man so likely to share the same final fate Yet when Dietrich Bonhoeffer an old family friend comes to comfort the von Wedemeyers after their losses she discovers that love isn't always logical Dietrich himself has determined to keep his distance from romantic attachments There is too much work to be done for God and his involvement in the conspiracy is far too important But when he encounters a woman whose intelligence and conviction match his own he's unprepared for how easy it is to give away his heart With their deep love comes risk and neither Dietrich nor Maria is prepared for just how great that risk soon becomes Based on detailed historical research this true love story is at once beautiful and heartrending My Dearest Dietrich sheds new light on a world famous theologian and the woman who changed his life Conflict and Colonialism in 21st Century Romantic Historical Fiction Hsu-Ming Teo,Paloma

Fresno-Calleja,2024-06-13 This book explores how postmillennial Anglophone women writers use romantic narrativisations of history to explore revise repurpose and challenge the past in their novels exposing the extent to which past societies were damaging to women by instead imagining alternative histories The novelists discussed employ the generic conventions of romance to narrate their understanding of historical and contemporary injustice and to reflect upon women's achievements and the price they paid for autonomy and a life of public purpose The volume seeks firstly to discuss the work of revision or reparation being performed by romantic historical fiction and secondly to analyse how the past is being repurposed for use in the present It contends that the discourses and genre of romance work to provide a reparative reading of the past but there are limitations and entrenched problems in such readings American Historical Fiction Lynda G.
