

Interpreting a Human Pedigree

Use the pedigree below to answer 1-5

1. In a pedigree, a square represents a male. If it is darkened he has hemophilia; if clear, he had normal blood clotting.

- a. How many males are there? 8
b. How many males have hemophilia? 3

2. A circle represents a female. If it is darkened, she has hemophilia; if open she is normal.

- a. How many females are there? 6
b. How many females have hemophilia? 2

3. A marriage is indicated by a horizontal line connecting a circle to a square.

- a. How many marriages are there? 3

4. A line perpendicular to a marriage line indicates the offspring. If the line ends with either a circle or a square, the couple had only one child. However, if the line is connected to another horizontal line, then several children were produced, each indicated by a short vertical line connected to the horizontal line. The first child born appears to the left and the last born to the right.

- a. How many children did the first couple (couple in row I) have? 2
b. How many children did the third couple (couple in row III) have? 7

5. Level I represent the first generation, level II represents the second generation.

- a. How many generations are there? 4
b. How many members are there in the fourth generation? 7

Use the pedigree below to answer 6-12

Prentice Hall Science Anthea Maton, Jill D. Wright, Jean Hopkins, Susan Johnson, David Lahart, Maryanna Quon Warner, 1994 The Oxford Handbook of Global Legal Pluralism Paul Schiff Berman, 2020 Abstract Global legal pluralism has become one of the leading analytical frameworks for understanding and conceptualizing law in the twenty first century Notes and Queries , 1898 Detention in Non-international Armed Conflict Lawrence Hill-Cawthorne, 2016 International law has long differentiated between international and non international armed conflicts traditionally regulating the former far more comprehensively than the latter This is particularly stark in the case of detention where the law of non international armed conflict contains no rules on who may be detained what processes must be provided to review their detention and when they must be released Given that non international armed conflicts are now the most common form of conflict this is especially worrying and the consequences of this have been seen in the detention practices of states such as the US and UK in Iraq and Afghanistan This book provides a comprehensive examination of the procedural rules that apply to detention in non international armed conflict with the focus on preventive security detention or internment All relevant areas of international law most notably international humanitarian law and international human rights law are analysed in detail and the interaction between them explored The book gives an original account of the relationship between the relevant rules of IHL and IHRL which is firmly grounded in general international law scholarship treating the issue as a matter of treaty interpretation With that in mind and with reference to State practice in specific non international armed conflicts including those in Sri Lanka Colombia Nepal Afghanistan and Iraq it is demonstrated that the customary and treaty obligations of States under human rights law continue absent derogation to apply to detention in non international armed conflicts The practical operation of those rules is then explored in detail The volume ends with a set of concrete proposals for developing the law in this area in a manner that builds upon rather than replaces the existing obligations of States and non State armed groups Variation in Time and Space Anna Čermáková, Markéta Malá, 2020-12-07 Variation in Time and Space Observing the World through Corpora is a collection of articles that address the theme of linguistic variation in English in its broadest sense Current research in English language presented in the book explores a fascinating number of topics whose unifying element is the corpus linguistic methodology Part I of this volume Meaning in Time and Space introduces the two dimensions of variation time and space relating them to the negotiation of meaning in discourse and questions of intertextuality Part II Variation in Time approaches the English language from a diachronic point of view the time periods covered vary considerably ranging from 16th century up to present day so do the genres explored Part III Variation in Space focuses on global varieties of English and includes a contrastive point of view The range of topics is again broad from specific lexico grammatical structures to the variation in academic English combining the regional and genre dimensions of variation This is a timely volume that shows the breadth and depth in current corpus based research of English Notes and Queries:
