A People Betrayed: A History of Corruption, Political Incompetence and Social Division in Modern Spain

1874-2018 Paul Preston, 2020-03-05 From the foremost historian of 20th century Spain A People Betrayed is the story of the devastating betrayal of Spain by its political class its military and its Church A People Betrayed Linda Melvern, 2024-07-25 Following thirty years of research including research into recently declassified government archives this newly revised and expanded edition of Linda Melvern's classic of investigative journalism reveals how policymakers continue to refuse to properly acknowledge their responsibilities under international law The new edition includes copious new material reckoning with the information that came to light during the 2022 trial of Flicien Kabuga the alleged financier of the genocide This new evidence feeds not only into a revised chronology and a wholly new section on the build up to the genocide but also into a new appendix that lists the six major genocide memorial sites in Rwanda along with now incontrovertible details of the massacres that occurred there Throughout it all Melvern reveals in unmatched detail the scale speed and intensity of the unfolding genocide and she exposes the Western governments and individuals who could have prevented what was happening if only they had chosen to act What emerges is a shocking indictment of how Rwanda was ignored in 1994 and of how it is misremembered in the West today an indictment that renders all the more poignant Melvern's accounts of the unrecognised heroism of those who stayed on during the violence from volunteer peacekeepers to NGO workers A Not-so-distant Horror Joseph Nevins, 2005 In his view much if not all of the horror that plagued East Timor in 1999 and in the 24 preceding years could have been avoided had countries like Australia Japan the United Kingdom and especially the United States not provided Indonesia with valuable political economic and military assistance as well as diplomatic cover The People's Dictator Alejandro Quiroga, 2025-01-29 This book is the first major biography of General Miguel Primo de Rivera dictator of Spain between 1923 and 1930 who played a key role in the shaping of a counterrevolutionary Europe in the interwar era Following new historiographical trends this book combines biographical experiences of the dictator with a sociopolitical reading of the dictatorship to reflect on the configuration of national political and gender identities at individual and group levels It challenges traditional readings of Primo de Rivera as a benign non ideological leader who established a paternalistic dictatorship instead showing an astute and ambitious politician who created a nationalist highly repressive authoritarian regime profoundly influenced by Italian fascism The monograph also explores Primo de Rivera's role as the creator of right wing populism in Spain who portrayed politicians and judges as enemies of the Spanish people used fake news in his propaganda machine and presented himself as a charismatic leader ready to destroy the liberal elites This book is intended for scholars and students specialising in Spanish history and politics along with those interested in nationalism populism far right movements Fascism dictators and authoritarian regimes in twentieth century European history The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made

All Necessary Measures Carrie Walling,2013-07-01 What prompts the United Nations Security Council to engage forcefully in some crises at high risk for genocide and ethnic cleansing but not others In All Necessary Measures Carrie Booth Walling identifies several systematic patterns in the stories that council members tell about conflicts and the policy solutions that result from them Drawing on qualitative comparative case studies spanning two decades including situations where the council has intervened to stop mass killing Somalia Bosnia Herzegovina and Sierra Leone as well as situations where it has not Rwanda Kosovo and Sudan Walling posits that the arguments council members make about the cause and character of conflict as well as the source of sovereign authority in target states have the potential to enable or constrain the use of military force in defense of human rights At a moment when constructivist scholars in international relations are pushing beyond empirical claims for the value of norms and toward critical analysis of such norms All Necessary Measures establishes discourse s real world explanatory power From her comparative chronology Walling demonstrates that humanitarian intervention becomes possible when the majority of Security Council members come to a shared understanding of the conflict perpetrators and victims and probable when the Council understands state sovereignty as complementary to human rights norms By illuminating the relationship between national interests and the core values of Security Council members and how it influences decision making All Necessary Measures suggests when and where the Security Council is likely to intervene in the future
