Contemporary postmodern secularized society has largely abandoned the central religions narratives that helped people to deal with such basic questions as the meaning of life the experience of transcendence suffering The issues however remain und thus the question What stories do we tell today to help us process the suffering that we undergo In this book the author looks at the stories that our contemporary society offers to deal with suffering The general story the Christian tradition has told has often been interpreted as a comic one one in which the hope of reconciliation and re creation is expressed But how does a secularized society deal with this issue The author explores the works of four contemporary comic novelists Iris Murdoch John Irving Cees Nooteboom and Anne Tyler He examines their worldviews as presented in their novels in order to understand how our secularized Western society deals with suffering In the end he offers a critical evaluation of their views acknowledging their strengths and points from which Christian theology can learn but also pointing out how differences from a Christian point of view     In One Person John Irving,2013 A tale of desire secrecy and sexual identity In One Person is a story of unfulfilled love tormented funny and affecting and an impassioned embrace of our sexual differences     Novel and Short Story Writer's Market, 1991 Robin Gee,1991 Lists addresses and information on contacts pay rates and submission requirements and includes essays on the craft of writing
