Buttress's World Guide to Abbreviations of Organizations L. Pitman, 2012-12-06 The previous edition of this directory extended its coverage of the Far East Australasia and Latin America areas previously under represented For this new edition emphasis has been given to increasing the number of entries for organizations from Britain the United States and Australia and particular attention has been paid to new political organizations in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union The number of entries included has gone up to over 68 000 of which over 9 000 are new or amended Cross references from defunct organizations in the previous edition have been deleted and references indicated by ex and now added for organizations which have changed their name since the previous edition As before the range of organizations included is broad and only purely local organizations have been excluded This directory therefore lists official and unofficial organizations national and international on all Subjects political economic and social Acronyms of parent bodies of subsidiary organizations are given where appropriate and equivalencies are used to link acronyms in different languages for the same organization Further information about the organizations listed can be found in the sources listed in the bibliography I would like to thank Henry Heaney and Graeme Mackintosh for their advice and David Grinyer for his technical support L M Pitman Bibliography Adams R ed 1993 Centres Bureaux A Directory of UK Concentrations of Effort Information and Expertise 2nd edn CBD Research Beckenham Barrett I K 1993 Encyclopedia of Women s Associations Worldwide Gale London Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Leapfrogging

Inequality Rebecca Winthrop, 2018-05-15 Exemplary stories of innovation from around the world In an age of rising inequality getting a good education increasingly separates the haves from the have nots In countries like the United States getting a good education is one of the most promising routes to upper middle class status even more so than family wealth Experts predict that by 2030 825 million children will reach adulthood without basic secondary level skills and it will take a century for the most marginalized youth to achieve the educational levels that the wealthiest enjoy today But these figures do not even account for the range of skills and competencies needed to thrive today in work citizenship and life In a world where the ability to manipulate knowledge and information think critically and collaboratively solve problems are essential to thrive access to a quality education is crucial for all young people In Leapfrogging Inequality researchers chart a new path for global education by examining the possibility of leapfrogging harnessing innovation to rapidly accelerate educational progress to ensure that all young people develop the skills they need for a fast changing world Analyzing a catalog of nearly 3 000 global education innovations the largest such collection to date researchers explore the potential of current practices to enable such a leap As part of this analysis the book presents an evidence based framework for getting ahead in education which it grounds in the here and now by narrating exemplary stories of innovation from around the world Together these stories and resources will inspire educators investors leaders of nongovernmental organizations and policymakers alike to rally around a new vision of educational progress one that ensures we do not leave yet another generation of young people behind Orphans and Vulnerable Children in Zambia Charlotte Harland,2004 Education for Citizenship: Ideas into Action Nick Clough,Cathie Holden,2005-06-29 This clear and user friendly text provides practical guidance on how to incorporate citizenship into the curriculum It offers a wealth of teaching aids including tried and tested photocopiable materials case studies suggested teaching strategies comprehensive reference and resource section Nick Clough and Cathie Holden are fully experienced in the field having both taught in primary and middle schools and both now specialise in providing citizenship education courses for trainee teachers and practising teachers This up to date book will help engage those teaching and studying the new requirement of Education for Citizenship at Key Stages 2 and 3 and along with lively examples of pupils work and discussions of the changes to the QCA guidelines regarding citizenship they provide a comprehensive and complete resource It is also of immense value to curriculum coordinators and to those wishing to know more about the thinking behind education for citizenship

Kibwana,1997 Foundations of Democracy Center for Civic Education (Calif.),1994 This teacher s guide presents effective strategies to implement the Foundations of Democracy textbook which introduces four concepts basic to the United States Constitution authority privacy responsibility and justice The guide explains that the success of citizenship education programs depends on extensive interaction among students realistic content that includes balanced treatment of issues use of community resource persons and the support of principals and other school administrators The guide identifies effective questioning strategies techniques for small group learning and interactive teaching methods To promote student interaction teachers are instructed to stimulate legislative hearings moot courts mediation sessions and town meetings Because of the interactive and conceptual nature of the curriculum the volume suggests performance based assessments in which students demonstrate their knowledge and skills by addressing complex questions within a meaningful context for which there is usually not just one correct answer For each chapter the guide provides suggestions for introducing the topic and for supplemental classroom activities JD

Teaching Civic Literacy Projects Shira Eve Epstein,2014 This practical resource shows teachers how to enact robust forms of civic education in today s schools Both instructive and thought provoking it will inspire teachers to craft curricula addressing a wide range of genuine civic problems such as those related to racial discrimination environmental damage and community health Dividing civic literacy projects into three key phases problem identification problem exploration and action the author provides concrete examples from upper elementary middle and high school classrooms to illustrate and analyze how each phase can unfold The projects ultimately provide opportunities for youth to participate in civic life while they develop essential literacy skills associated with reading writing and speaking The final chapter outlines a curriculum design process that will result in coherent and meaningful civic literacy projects driven by clear goals It includes practical tools such as a sample unit timeline an assessment chart and student worksheets that can be modified for immediate use Shira s work offers us a reflection of democratic practice in the classroom through the teaching of critical reading persuasive writing and deliberation In Teaching Civic Literacy Projects Shira invites us all to contemplate the depth of the democratic project and the possibility that schools can help uphold our democratic ideals From the Foreword by Celia Oyler professor Teachers College Columbia University This book is a gem Shira Epstein has provided invaluable assistance for teachers interested in engaging their students in the political and civic spheres in ways that build crucial literacy skills The combination of a powerful framework and rich and detailed case studies provides readers with a clear vision and helpful specific guidance for creating robust civic learning experiences for young people Diana Hess senior vice president Spencer Foundation and professor University of Wisconsin Madison Excellent civic education means encouraging young people to identify and define problems and take action That is challenging in our era of political polarization and narrow definitions of education Shira Eve Epstein provides the best practical guide for teachers who want their students to confront social problems Peter Levine Lincoln Filene Professor of Citizenship Public Affairs Tufts University
