,1996 Alteratives Warren F. Motte,Gerald Prince,1993 The Critical Response to Chester Himes Charles L. P.

Silet,1999-10-30 The work of Chester Himes is now undergoing a critical and popular reevaluation as it gradually comes back into print after years of neglect His protest novels from the 1940s and early 1950s his Harlem Domestic crime books first published in France and later released in English in the United States and his remarkable two volume autobiography are now gaining a wider readership through their republication Nonetheless the critical writings on his work remain scattered and are often difficult to obtain This collection of reviews and essays from both popular and academic sources traces the critical response to his work from 1946 to 1996 and thus sheds light on the critical reputation of one of the most distinguished but underrated African American authors Himes has a wide international reputation but this reference book focuses on those essays and reviews in the English language which provide a clearer assessment of his controversial literary standing in his native country where his reputation has been most under debate The book includes a balanced assessment of all his work along with an interview with Himes s brother that offers some corrective commentary on his autobiography The volume also provides a chronology a checklist of his writings and a bibliography

New York ,1991    The New Hollywood Jim Hillier,1992

The studio system which had dominated Hollywood for more than half a century finally fell apart in the late 1960s The uncertainty that followed opened the way for independent producers many of whom were already specializing in exploitation movies with titles like Slumber Party Massacre which were targeted at the 12 to 20 year old age group These films with their starvation budgets and impossible shooting schedules gave a start to a number of notable directors Others were meanwhile trying their luck in television or shooting experimental movies The first post studio directors the so called movie brats Spielberg Lucas Coppola Scorsese and De Palma are now famous Behind them has come a new generation of directors often controversial who now make some of Hollywood s most interesting pictures This book based on in depth interviews looks at the experiences of some thirty of them in getting established and keeping afloat in the new Hollywood Drawing upon information gathered in interviews more often than quoting directly from them Jim Hillier has produced an absorbing account from the filmmakers viewpoint of the business of filmmaking Some of the new generation of directors have already had hits such as Terminator James Cameron The Silence of the Lambs Jonathan Demme Gremlins Joe Dante Sleeping with the Enemy Joseph Ruben and Look Who s Talking Amy Heckerling Others continue to make inexpensive horror movies Yet others divide their time between cinema and television among them Michael Mann who directed Manhunter for the cinema and produced Miami Vice and Crime Story for television and David Lynch of Blue Velvet Wild at Heart and Twin Peaks Among those included are Bill Duke A Rage in Harlem Mike Figgis Internal Affairs Randa Haines Children of a Lesser God Tim Hunter River s Edge Spike Lee Do the Right Thing Jim McBride The Big Easy and Susan Seidelman Desperately Seeking Susan Today the name Hollywood conjures up not simply tinseltown itself but the whole of the American film industry The New Hollywood bears witness to the diversity and vigor still remaining in an industry that over the past twenty years has become more dispersed less rigidly organized and much more costly Jim Hillier s book provides the essential background to understanding the economic and creative forces that will carry the American cinema into the 21st century
