Pelling, Ben Wisner, 2012-05-16 Published with ProVention Consortium UNDP and UN Habitat This excellent book is essential reading for those concerned with urban risk and its reduction in Africa the most rapidly urbanizing region of the world

Professor Jo Beall Development Studies Institute London School of Economics At last a book that recognizes the impacts of disasters on Africa's 350 million urban dwellers including the many disasters that get overlooked and go unrecorded But also a book that through careful case studies shows what creates disaster risk and what local measures can be taken to address it

David Satterthwaite International Institute for Environment and Development IIED This innovative volume combines the latest conceptualisations of urban disaster risk and vulnerability with case studies from across the African continent on how existing and innovative information can inform efforts to address the problems Coverage ranges from the major catastrophes of news headlines to small everyday disasters with which poor urban residents have to cope in their survival strategies

Written by international authorities and local specialists this extremely useful book should find a place in the hands of academics and practitioners alike Professor David Simon Department of Geography Royal Holloway University of London This is a one of a kind book packed with original research and offering an innovative way of thinking about the reduction of risk in rapidly urbanizing cities across the globe It is a must have for professionals researchers and policy makers The book addresses four inter related themes critical for urban risk reduction environment livehood urban governance and the generation of urban risks Its focus is on Africa the most rapidly urbanizing world region but it illustrates global processes

Part one reviews development urbanization and disaster risk in Africa as a whole identifies state of the art practices and policies for building urban resilience and provides a tool kit for urban risk reduction It also presents a powerful conceptual framework to analyse and compare disaster risk and resilience in different cities and communities Part two presents detailed case studies from Algeria Ghana Senegal Kenya Tanzania and South Africa illustrating vulnerability to hazards ranging from earthquake to shack fire environmental health hazards traffic hazards and flooding Part three looks to the future and outlines a vision for a safer urban Africa based on achieving gains in human security through inclusive governance and investment in the creative capacities of Africa's urban dwellers With foreword by Anna Tibaijuka Executive Director UN HABITAT
