Broken Scales Tom Diaz,2021-10-15 Humans are a species that classifies We arrange the flow of the things and events that we see and experience place them into categories and erect boundaries around those categories Among the boundaries that we erect are those that we put around groups of other human beings The evil side of human classification of other human beings is that we sometimes create false categories of other people as is often the case in racial ethnic and religious stereotypes This unmindful creation of empty categories of human characteristics is what happened during two periods crucial to the construction of race in America This is racism The United States is in a period of deep cultural flux and conflict much of it seen through the lens of race Tom Diaz proposes that the everyday actions of ordinary people in the context of extreme political and cultural polarization distort the criminal justice system and betray the lofty ideals expressed in American founding documents and centuries of Anglo American articulations of basic human rights These everyday actions range across a spectrum from the armed intervention of private citizens in the forms of individual action neighborhood watches and citizen s arrests to the expectations imposed on law enforcement in particular and the criminal justice system in general
