China and the Internet Song Shi, 2023-12-15 Two oversimplified narratives have long dominated news reports and academic studies of China's Internet one lauding its potentials to boost commerce the other bemoaning state control and measures against the forces of political transformations This bifurcation obscures the complexity of the dynamic forces operating on the Chinese Internet and the diversity of Internet related phenomena China and the Internet analyzes how Chinese activists NGOs and government offices have used the Internet to fight rural malnutrition the digital divide the COVID 19 pandemic and other urgent problems affecting millions of people It presents five theoretically informed case studies of how new media have been used in interventions for development and social change including how activists battled against COVID 19 In addition this book applies a Communication for Development approach to examine the use and impact of China's Internet Although it is widely used internationally in Internet studies Communication for Development has not been rigorously applied in studies of China's Internet This approach offers a new perspective to examine the Internet and related phenomena in Chinese society

The Roles of Social Media in Education: Affective, Behavioral, and Cognitive Dimensions Hung Phu Bui, Mark Bedoya Ulla, Veronico N. Tarrayo, Chien Thang Pham, 2023-10-24 technologies in education A large body of research has attempted to measure the extent to which social media change human communication In education researchers and educators have employed social media to increase students engagement inside and outside the classroom They have been exploring the effects of the use of social media on the learning outcome and learners beliefs and experiences However some of their endeavors are inconclusive As the effects of social media in education are context sensitive research results reflecting different contexts around the world will contribute to the literature on social media and education Student engagement in learning a growing interest in educational research is widely believed to contribute to the success of learning The contemporary literature shows that students can engage in learning affectively behaviorally and cognitively Recent studies are also interested in using technology to mediate students social and metacognitive engagement in learning As student engagement is a multidimensional area interdisciplinary studies have recently expanded their literature The use of social media to increase student engagement in learning remains underexplored
