

Hotel Rwanda (2004) – AP World History Movie Guide

Student Instructions

Hotel Rwanda tells the true story of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager who risked his life to protect over 1,200 refugees during the 1994 Rwandan Genocide. The film offers a harrowing, human-centered account of mass violence, failed international intervention, and the legacy of colonial division.

As you watch, think like a historian. Consider:

- How do the legacies of imperialism and decolonization shape ethnic violence?
- What does the international response—or lack of it—tell us about global priorities in the modern era?
- How can individuals act morally and courageously within systems that fail?

Answer all questions in complete sentences. The final reflection asks you to connect Hotel Rwanda to larger themes in AP World History, including human rights, state-building, and global governance.

Since the beginning of the conflict in 2003 more than 300 000 lives have been lost in Darfur Players of the video game Darfur Is Dying learn this sobering fact and more as they work to ensure the survival of a virtual refugee camp The video game not only puts players in the position of a struggling refugee it shows them how they can take action in the real world Creating the Witness examines the role of film and the Internet in creating virtual witnesses to genocide over the last one hundred years The book asks how do visual media work to produce witnesses audiences who are drawn into action The argument is a detailed critique of the notion that there is a seamless trajectory from observing an atrocity to acting in order to intervene According to Leshu Torchin it is not enough to have a camera images of genocide require an ideological framework to reinforce the messages the images are meant to convey Torchin presents wide ranging examples of witnessing and genocide including the Armenian genocide the Holocaust engaging film as witness in the context of the Nuremberg trials and the international human rights organization WITNESS and its sustained efforts to use video to publicize human rights advocacy and compel action From a historical and comparative approach Torchin s broad survey of media and the social practices around it investigates the development of popular understandings of genocide to achieve recognition and response both political and judicial ultimately calling on viewers to act on behalf of human rights Film Moments James Walters, Tom Brown, 2017-10-07 Film is made of moments. In its earliest form the cinema was a moment mere seconds recorded and projected into the darkness. Even as film has developed into today's complex and intricate medium it is the brief temporary and transitory that combines to create the whole. Our memories of films are composed of the moments we deem to be crucial touchstones for our understanding and appreciation. Moments matter. The 38 specially commissioned essays in Film Moments examine a wide selection of key scenes across a broad spectrum of national cinemas historical periods and genres featuring films by renowned auteurs including Alfred Hitchcock, Jean Renoir and Vincente Minnelli and important contemporary directors such as Pedro Costa, Zhang Ke, Jia and Quentin Tarantino addressing films including City Lights, Gone with the Wind, The Wizard of Oz, The Night of the Hunter, Wild Strawberries, 8 1/2, Bonnie and Clyde, Star Wars, Conte d'Un Homme, United 93 and Lord of the Rings: Return of the King. Film Moments provides both an enlightening introduction for students to the diversity of approaches and concerns in the study of film and a dynamic and vibrant account of key film sequences for anyone interested in enhancing their understanding of cinema.
