Assumed Engagement English Edition:

European Contract Law Bénédicte Fauvarque-Cosson, Denis Mazeaud, 2009-04-27 The Association Henri Capitant des Amis de la Culture Juridique Française and the Société de législation comparée joined the academic network on European Contract Law in 2005 to work on the elaboration of a common terminology and on guiding principles as well as to propose a revised version of the Principles of European Contract Law PECL. The results of this work were sent to the European Commission and have already been published in French. The English translation is now being published by seller elp. This work could contribute to the wider European project. The part on the guiding principles could be a component of the CFR in the form of black letter model rules or recitals. The part on terminology is in itself useful for the elaboration of the final various linguistic versions of the CFR. It finds its place within the materials which will accompany the model rules. Last but by no means least the revised version of the PECL should be considered by the European institutions as an alternative set of model rules on contract law.

The Doctrines of US Security Policy

Heiko Meiertöns, 2010-06-10

The practise of outlining principles for the conduct of US security policy in so called doctrines is a characteristic feature of US foreign policy. From an international lawyer's point of view two aspects of these doctrines are of particular interest. First to what degree are the criteria for the use of force as laid down in these doctrines consistent with the limitations for the use of force in international law. Second which law creating effects do these doctrines have. Furthermore the legal nature of these doctrines remains uncertain. These matters are examined beginning with the Monroe Doctrine of 1823 and taking into account the Stimson Doctrine of 1932 the doctrines of the Cold War period and the Bush Doctrine of 2002. The Bush Doctrine in particular has generated controversies concerning its compatibility with Article 51 of the UN Charter due to its principle of preventive self defence.
