Your Need for Bread is Mine Morris D. Pike, 1977 Poems prayers stories and songs describe efforts to alleviate world food shortages Ghost Settlement on the Prairie Joseph V. Hickey, 1995 Four miles southeast of the village of Matfield Green in Chase County Kansas the heart of the Flint Hills lies the abandoned settlement of Thurman At the turn of the century Thurman was a prosperous farming and ranching settlement with fifty one households a post office two general stores a blacksmith shop five schools and a church Today only the ruins of Thurman remain Joseph Hickey uses Thurman to explore the settlement form of social organization which along with the village hamlet and small town was a dominant feature of nineteenth and early twentieth century American life He traces Thurman s birth in 1874 its shallow rises and falls and its demise in 1944 Akin to what William Least Heat Moon did for Chase County in PrairyErth Hickey provides a deep map for one post office community and consequently tells us a great deal about America s rural past Describing the shifting relationships between Thurmanites and their Matfield Green neighbors Hickey details how social forces set in motion by the American ideal of individualism and the machinations of capitalist entrepreneurs produced a Darwinian struggle between Thurman stock raisers and Flint Hills cattle barons that ultimately doomed Thurman Central to the story are the concept of ordinary entrepreneurship and the profoundly capitalist attitudes of the farmers who settled Thurman and thousands of other communities dotting the American landscape Hickey s account of Thurman s social organization and disintegration provides a new perspective on what happened when the cattle drives from Texas and the Southwest shifted in the 1880s from the Kansas cowtowns to the Flint Hills Moreover he punctures numerous myths about the Flint Hills including those that cattle dominated because the land is too rocky to farm or that Indians refused to farm because of traditional beliefs Like many other small rural communities Hickey argues Thurman during its seventy year history was actually several different settlements A product of changing social conditions each one resulted from shifting memberships and boundaries that reflected the efforts of local entrepreneurs to use country schools churches and other forms of social capital to gain advantages over their competitors In the end Thurman succumbed to the impact of agribusiness which had the effect of transforming social capital from an asset into a liability Ultimately Hickey shows the settlement s fate echoed the decline of rural community throughout America

Modular Programming Languages Jürg Gutknecht, Wolfgang Weck, 2006-12-31 The circle is closed The European Modula 2 Conference was originally launched with the goal of increasing the popularity of Modula 2 a programming language created by Niklaus Wirth and his team at ETH Zurich as a successor of Pascal For more than a decade the conference has wandered through Europe passing Bled Slovenia in 1987 Loughborough UK in 1990 Ulm Germany in 1994 and Linz Austria in 1997 Now at the beginning of the new millennium it is back at its roots in Zurich Switzerland While traveling through space and time the conference has mutated It has widened its scope and changed its name to Joint Modular Languages Conference JMLC With an invariant focus though on modular software construction in teaching research and out there in industry This topic has never been more important than today ironically not because of insufficient language support but quite on the contrary due to a truly confusing variety of modular concepts offered by modern languages modules packages classes and components the newest and still controversial trend The recent notion of component is still very vaguely defined so vaguely in fact that it almost seems advisable to ignore it Wirth in his article Records Modules Objects Classes Components in honor of Hoare's retirement in 1999 Clarification is needed That Cowboy's Kids Debra Salonen, 2000 That Cowboy's Kids by Debra Salonen released on Mar 25 2000 is available now for purchase Report of the Commissioner of Education, 1898 House Documents USA Congress House of Representatives, 1898 Annual Report of the Commissioner of Education United States.
