Communication activities: Student's Book pages 138 & 140

- Pairwork. Put students into A and B pairs and ask them to turn to their respective pages and study the photo.
- They then work with their partner and show each other their photo. They describe the similarities and differences between the two photos and decide what links them.
- Refer students to the Useful language box below the exercise to help them.

That people sometimes use animals to work and entertain them.

- Pairwork. Students use the categories in the box to discuss with a partner the different ways animals are used by humans.

Possible answers:
leisure/entertainment: circuses
research: testing on animals for medical purposes or to test cosmetics security: sniffer dogs to test for drugs or explosives at airports; to protect property sport: horseracing; greyhound racing; fox hunting work: dogs for the blind and other disabilities; workhorses to pull carts; mules and camels to carry people's belongings in some countries

- Pairs join up with another pair to compare their ideas in exercise 2. They then discuss the questions.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Pairwork. Students read the information and discuss the questions.
- You could then ask students to report back briefly on anything interesting they heard in their discussions.

Details:
If you have a class that likes dogs, get them to find out what happened at the most recent Crufts dog show. Ask them these questions:
1. Which breed of dog was Best in Show?
2. Can you find a photo of the winner?
3. What were other prizes awarded for?
4. If you want your dog to enter next year, what exactly must it do (or you do) to be accepted?
