Michael Brown

Astra F 7d:

Georgia Tim Burford,2024-08-14 This new seventh edition of Bradt's Georgia remains the only dedicated guide to this fascinating budget friendly Caucasian country where tourism continues to grow and domestic travel is increasingly straightforward. Thoroughly updated to reflect recent developments this guidebook includes revised and new listings for hotels homestays restaurants what to see and do and how to get around by public transport. At the intersection of Europe and Asia nestled between Russia Armenia Azerbaijan and Turkey Georgia is the hub of the Caucasus a country known for its mountains and Black Sea coast and its wonderful food wine and all round hospitality. With Bradt's Georgia you can experience the new alongside the old in a country where most cultural and historical sights are free of charge or very cheap. The capital Tbilisi boasts a charming cobbled old town the centuries old tiled baths of Orbeliani and numerous cultural highlights but has also seen major developments recently including conspicuous new projects such as the Panorama complex. Already famous for the cave monastery of Vardzia and the ancient wine growing region of Kakheti Georgia's more remote areas are becoming more accessible. Networks of rural guesthouses and hiking trails including the increasingly popular Transcaucasian Trail a volunteer led project to create two long distance hiking routes are being developed alongside a push towards more sustainable and responsible tourism. On the Black Sea the city of Batumi has developed into a glitzy playground for regional tourism. Appropriately given that the country is considered to be the birthplace of wine the Georgian wine industry features prominently with particular emphasis on the UNESCO listed natural qvevri wines made in clay amphorae set in the ground. Also covered are skiing at Gudauri Bakuriani and Mestia cycling the World Heritage sites of Mtskheta Svaneti and Gelati Georgian fusion cuisine now celebrated in Tbilisi's stylish new restaurants 5th century churches and other Christian architecture cave cities and Georgian polyphonic singing. Bradt's unique guide to Georgia is the ideal companion for travellers from serious hikers to wine buffs high end culture lovers to winter sports enthusiasts and city break aficionados to backpackers of all ages.

Ishbel Holmes was determined to cycle the world but her journey took a completely unexpected turn when despite her initial instincts not to she rescued a street dog in Turkey. Ishbel was lost and alone when she started on her epic trip but in Lucy found a companionship never previously known. Between the two there formed a deep bond and their relationship was followed and supported by thousands of readers online before becoming a media sensation overnight when Ishbel put out a plea for help to transport Lucy to an animal shelter three hundred miles away. This heart rending tale is about more than just the relationship between a woman and her dog It is a testimony to the human spirit overcoming present day challenges and churning up long buried and painful memories from Ishbel's earlier life It is also a tale of adventure one person's determination to cross an unfamiliar country by bike and the unforgettable scenes that greet her on the Turkey Syria border and into Syria itself And it is a loving portrait of Lucy the street dog that was determined not to let Ishbel go and whose dogged persistence helped to break down the barriers around her heart and in so doing change her life in ways she had never imagined Ultimately this is a tale of love and healing a modern fable that touches the soul and reminds us all of the need to belong
