Porter, 1995-11-28 An absorbing exploration of the human planet relationship Describes how Earth processes influence our lives on a daily basis and how human actions alter the natural functioning of Earth systems Explains how to distinguish the effects of anthropogenic change from natural change and be able to predict the impact of both

The New Walford Guide to Reference Resources Ray Lester, 2005 The New Walford highlights the best resources to use when undertaking a search for accurate and relevant information saving you precious time and effort For those looking for a selective and evaluative reference resource that really delivers on its promise look no further In addition to print sources The New Walford naturally covers an extensive range of e reference sources such as digital databanks digital reference services electronic journal collections meta search engines networked information services open archives resource discovery services and websites of premier organizations in both the public and private sectors. But rather than supplying a list of all available known resources as a web search engine might, The New Walford subject specialists have carefully selected and evaluated available resources to provide a definitive list of the most appropriate and useful. With an emphasis on quality and sustainability, the subject specialists have been careful to assess the differing ways that information is framed and communicated in different subject areas. As a result, the resource evaluations in each subject area are prefaced by an introductory overview of the structure of the relevant literature. This ensures that The New Walford is clear, easy to use and intuitive.

Publisher Christian Home Educators' Curriculum Manual Cathy Duffy, 1995 The premiere guide for choosing homeschool curriculum. For beginners or veterans, Cathy helps you wade through the curriculum jungle to choose what's right for each of your children. Reviews of hundreds of books, games, videos, computer programs, parent helps and much, much more for all subjects. Learning styles: Cathy helps you determine each child's learning style, then choose methods and resources that fit each child. What your child needs to know, what is typically taught at each grade level. Which resources allow your children to work independently, which work best, taught one on one. Identifying and dealing with learning disabilities, plus a list of consultants for extra help. Testing: the good and bad of testing, different kinds of tests, where to get them, testing services. Addresses, phone numbers, faxes, e-mail and web sites for all publishers and distributors. How to consolidate your shopping and save shipping costs.
