

QUESTION 2: What are the main differences between the two different strategic planning processes?

Strategic planning and business planning

What are the differences?

These questions should be answered by looking back at the two strategic planning processes. The main difference is that the strategic planning process is concerned with the long-term future, while the business planning process is concerned with the short-term future. The strategic planning process is concerned with the overall direction of the organization, while the business planning process is concerned with the day-to-day operations of the organization. The strategic planning process is concerned with the long-term future, while the business planning process is concerned with the short-term future.
