The Great School Rethink

Frederick M. Hess,2023-06-13 An invigorating examination of the potential for meaningful change in education from one of the nation s most astute observers of schooling and school improvement In The Great School Rethink education policy sentinel Frederick M Hess offers a pithy and perceptive appraisal of American schooling and finds in the uncertain period following pandemic disruption an ideal moment to reimagine US education Now is the time he asserts to ask hard questions about how schools use time and talent how they work with parents what they do with digital tools and how they meet the needs of their communities As Hess explains to rethink is to acknowledge the realities of the education system while opening one s mind to possibility With characteristic verve and wit Hess guides readers through his rethink process a versatile and easily implemented approach to identifying issues and brainstorming possible responses He encourages readers to explore what improvements might alleviate current pressures and frustrations such as teacher shortages and burnout declining student performance and compromised learning time

Whether their goal is to achieve better student engagement increase parent involvement or implement personalized learning readers will develop the mindset to ask the right questions to fully understand the problem that is being solved and to evaluate the probable effectiveness of proposed solutions Brimming with challenging questions robust exercises and eye opening data this book is a must read for education professionals parent advocates and anyone passionate about the future of American education Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F. McMahon,2016-10-15 In 2011 capital's crisis erupted in Egyptian society This eruption and subsequent politics have been misrepresented as revolutionary as the working class was and is increasingly so devalued and disempowered In Crisis and Class War in Egypt Sean F McMahon critically analyses Egypt's recent political history He argues that the so called revolution was the appearance of capital's destruction of the value of the Egyptian working class and an existential crisis for capital In response productive capital in the form of the military used disposed of and replaced its junior partners in governing first the predatory capital of the Mubarak state with the commodity capital of the Muslim Brotherhood and then commodity capital with the finance capital of the Gulf Cooperation Council These reconfigurations have been expressed in all manner of reactionary governmental arrangements including constitutions legislation and currency reform Extending today's analysis into the near future McMahon sees the war of Egyptian society intensifying and increasingly violent lives for Egyptian workers Global Energy Assessment Thomas B.
