Civil Resistance Against 21st Century Authoritarianism. Defending Human Rights in the Global South Bose, Rajanya, Becker Castellaro, Sebastián, Çiftçioğlu, Kerem, Deochand, Ektaa, Mendoza Servín, Natalia, Monsalve, Ezequiel, Peralta, Jennifer, Zec, Slavenska, 2021-05-01 Populist authoritarian governments have jeopardized the human rights accomplishments of the 20th century Ensuring their fulfillment has become a challenge for these governments and an issue for human rights defenders seeking to find ways to resist anti democratic actions This book seeks to expose the crisis of human rights at the hands of people who despite rising to power through democratic means now see democracy as a limiting institution that must be dismantled urgently Restrictions on civil society and arbitrary detentions are some of the reasons why this populist and authoritarian vision is incompatible with human rights which are guaranteed to some and denied to others Through various narratives the authors seek to recognize new spaces for struggle such as political activism to develop action research tools in a context of crisis

Give Us More Guns Mark Shaw, 2021-03-24 With remarkable courage insight and access Mark Shaw takes the reader into the darkest corners of South Africa s ganglands Mandy Wiener The assassination of police investigator Charl Kinnear in Cape Town in 2020 was yet one more in a spate of murders related to the so called guns to gangs saga in which state weapons are sold to South Africa s criminal underworld It began in 2007 when Colonel Christiaan Prinsloo and his cronies began selling thousands of decommissioned police weapons to gang lords Prinsloo s motive to fund his son s university fees The sale of weapons to criminals which the police service has tried to downplay has resulted in a killing spree of unprecedented proportions Cape Town is now one of the most violent places on earth and in 2019 the army was called in to patrol gang infested areas Give us more Guns based on hundreds of interviews with police experts and the gangsters themselves tells the story of this callous crime for the first time Mark Shaw explores how the guns get into the hands of South Africa s crime bosses and describes the bloodshed that ensues He also uncovers accounts of rampant corruption within the police and in the state s gun licensing system probing the government failure that has been instrumental in arming the country s gangsters

Pretoria , 1979 Examining Internet and Technology around the World Laura M. Steckman, 2020-12-02 This book offers comparative insights into the challenges and opportunities surrounding emerging technology and the internet as it is used and perceived throughout the world providing students with cross cultural and cross national perspectives This volume examines issues pertaining to the internet and technology including access and censorship alternative energy technologies artificial intelligence autonomous robots cyberbullying cybercrime e learning GMOs online privacy and virtual and augmented reality For each topic the volume features eight country level perspectives that span the world to allow for comparisons of different nations specific approaches to the technology or issue This encyclopedia takes a new direction in understanding the importance and impact of emerging technologies on the world showing that even when experiencing similar technologically related challenges or advances these technologies do not form one size fits all solutions for every nation and population Even when nations develop similar technologies human dimensions from policy to social norms to culture influence people and society across the world differently Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1982

Police Work and Identity Andrew Faull, 2017-09-07 This is a book about the men and women who police contemporary South Africa Drawing on rich original ethnographical data it considers how officers make sense of their jobs and how they find meaning in their duties It demonstrates that the dynamics that lead to police abuses and scandals in transitional and neo liberalising regimes such as South Africa can be traced to the day to day experiences and ambitions of the average police officer It is about the stories they tell themselves about themselves and their social worlds and how these shape the order they produce through their work By focusing on police officers this book positions the individual in primacy over the organisation asking what policing looks like when motivated by the pursuit of ontological security in precarious contexts It acknowledges but downplays the importance of police culture in determining officers attitudes and behaviour and reminds readers that most officers lives are entangled in and shaped by a range of social political and cultural forces It suggests that a job in the South African Police Service SAPS is primarily just that a job Most officers join the organisation after other dreams have slipped beyond reach their presence in the Service being almost accidental But once employed they re write their self narratives and enact carefully choreographed performances to ease managerial and public pressure and to rationalize their coercive practices In an era where evidence and what works reigns supreme and where cop culture is often deemed a primary socializing force this book emphasises how officers personal histories ambitions and vulnerabilities remain central to how policing unfolds on the street Towards a Safe and Secure Nation, 2003 Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich, 1975 Contains essential bibliographic and access information on serials published throughout the world Adrian Piper, Carl Pope Adrian Piper, 1992 The Farmer's Weekly, 1937 Police Officer Application Form Questions and Answers Richard McMunn, 2012-04
