Welcome to Alabama

Directions: Read the story below and answer the reading comprehension questions on the next page.

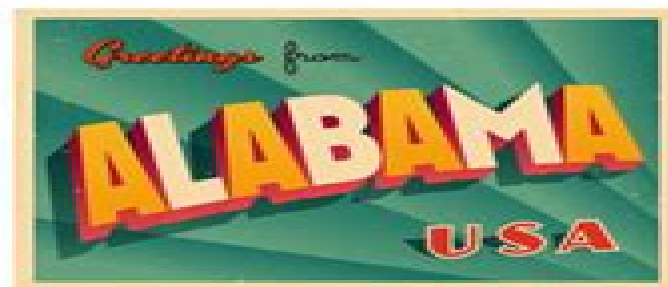

I live in Alabama. It is a southern state, bordering Mississippi, Georgia, and the Gulf of Mexico. Alabama is known for southern hospitality, delicious food, college football, as well as the Lynyrd Skynyrd song, "Sweet Home Alabama." Alabama became the 22nd state on December 14, 1819. There are many famous cities here, including Birmingham, Huntsville, Mobile, and the capital Montgomery. Birmingham has a population of over 200,000 people.

There are a few state nicknames for Alabama, including the Yellowhammer State, Heart of Dixie, and the Cotton State, and the state tree is the Southern Longleaf Pine. The state flower is the Camelia. Many famous people have come from this state. Alabamians, such as Hank Williams, Helen Keller, and Rosa Parks are all from the this great state.

So many wonderful and amazing things have come out of Alabama. In 1886, the world's first electric trolley system was introduced in Montgomery. Alabama is the only state with the major natural resources to make iron and steel, which makes this state the largest supplier of cast-iron and steel pipe products. With over 90% of the population in Alabama being Christian, the state is part of the Bible Belt.

Alabama history is filled with Native American heritage, as well as Confederate roots. The Cherokee, Chickasaw, and Choctaw Indians lived throughout Alabama. The British gained control of the area in 1763 by the Treaty of Paris, but had to give back almost all of the region back to the U.S. and Spain after the American Revolution. The Confederacy was founded at Montgomery in February of 1861, and the Confederate flag was designed.

If you are ever in the south, be sure to visit Alabama! You will be greeted with a warm welcome, and probably a warm meal. There are so many things to do, places to visit, and people to meet. Do you think you will visit Alabama? When you do, stay for a few days and see all that this beautiful state has to offer.
