Co-operative News and Journal of Associated Industry ,1891     The Illustrated Carpenter and Builder ,1880     Up from Zero Paul Goldberger,2004-09-07 In Up from Zero Paul Goldberger winner of the Pulitzer Prize tells the inside story of the quest to rebuild one of the most important symbolic sites in the world the sixteen acres where the towers of the former World Trade Center stood A story of power politics architecture community and culture Up from Zero takes us inside the controversial struggle to create and build one of the most challenging urban design projects in history What should replace the fallen towers Who had the courage and vision to rise to the task of rebuilding Who had the right finally to decide

The struggle began soon after September 11 2001 as titanic egos took sides made demands and jockeyed for power Lawyers developers grieving families local residents politicians artists and architects all had fierce needs radically different ideas strong emotions and boundless determination How could conflicting interests be resolved After hundreds of hours of often rancorous meetings the first sets of plans were finally revealed in the summer of 2002 and the results were staggeringly disappointing Yet as Goldberger shows the rebuilding process recovered and began to flourish Rather than degenerating into turf wars it evolved in ways that no one could have predicted From the decision to reintegrate the site into the dense fabric of lower Manhattan to the choice of Daniel Libeskind as master planner to the appointment of a memorial jury the process has been marked by moments of bold vision effective community activism and personal instinct punctuating the often contentious politics of public participation Up from Zero takes in the full sweep of this tremendous effort Goldberger presents a drama of creative minds at work solving seemingly insurmountable clashes of taste interests and ideas With unique access to the players and the process and with a sophisticated understanding of architecture and its impact on people and on the social and cultural life of a city Paul Goldberger here chronicles the courage the sacrifices and the burning passions at the heart of one of the greatest efforts of urban revitalization in modern times
