5.1	Identify words and phrases in a text that are repeated or used in different ways to describe characters, setting, or events in a story, drama, or poem, including analyzing how an author might develop those characters or how a poet might repeat lines, words, or sounds to emphasize a meaning or create rhythm; or how the meaning of a sentence might change when particular words are used instead of other words with similar meaning.	Recall, distinguish, compare, contrast, analyze, evaluate, synthesize, and evaluate characters, setting, or events in a story, drama, or poem, including analyzing how an author might develop those characters or how a poet might repeat lines, words, or sounds to emphasize a meaning or create rhythm; or how the meaning of a sentence might change when particular words are used instead of other words with similar meaning.
5.2	Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text; and explain how particular details in a text create a particular effect (e.g., characters in a story may have traits or thoughts that推断出 the author's purpose).	Reinterpret, analyze, evaluate, distinguish, compare, contrast, synthesize, and evaluate characters, setting, or events in a story, drama, or poem, including analyzing how an author might develop those characters or how a poet might repeat lines, words, or sounds to emphasize a meaning or create rhythm; or how the meaning of a sentence might change when particular words are used instead of other words with similar meaning.
5.3	Compare and contrast the overall structure of two or more stories, poems, or drama, including how each author treats similar themes or topics using different techniques and craft.	Compare, distinguish, analyze, evaluate, synthesize, and evaluate characters, setting, or events in a story, drama, or poem, including analyzing how an author might develop those characters or how a poet might repeat lines, words, or sounds to emphasize a meaning or create rhythm; or how the meaning of a sentence might change when particular words are used instead of other words with similar meaning.
