Social Media and Modern Society - How Social Media Are Changing the Way We Interact with the World Around Ján Višňovský,Jana Majerová,2024-11-27 This book offers a compelling exploration of how social media platforms are reshaping contemporary life and driving economic political and cultural transformations It brings together theoretical insights and empirical studies to examine the multifaceted impact of social media on communication behavior policy and societal norms The various chapters address critical issues such as digital marketing social responsibility and the role of influencers emphasizing how businesses and individuals are navigating the evolving digital landscape The book delves into pressing concerns including the psychological effects of social media on youth the spread of misinformation and the challenges of digital addiction It highlights the dual nature of social platforms as both enablers of civic engagement and sources of division presenting case studies on topics such as political discourse community activism and local democracy

Design and Application of Innovative Local Treatments in Glioblastoma and Other Cancers Emmanuel Garcion,Carmen Alvarez-Lorenzo,2021-04-01

Youth and Popular Culture in Africa Paul Ugor,2021 The edited collection focuses on the links between young people and African popular culture It explores popular culture produced and consumed by young people in contemporary Africa And by culture we mean all kinds of texts or representations visual oral written performative fictional social and virtual created by African youth mostly about their lives and their immediate societies and for themselves but also consumed by the larger public and shared locally and globally We proceed from the premise that cultural texts not only function as social facts as Karin Barber argues but that they double as commentaries upon and interpretations of social facts They are part of social reality but they also take up an attitude to social reality 2007 04 So the work focuses specifically on what African youth produce as popular culture under what conditions or contexts they produce such work how they produce those texts why they produce them the aesthetic dimensions of these texts as cultural artifacts and why these textual practices matter as social facts as interpretive acts and as cultural symbols of the general cultural activism of young people in a rapidly changing world a world where the global cultural economy is the prime terrain for the relentless struggles over the meanings that come to shape political economic and social systems Green Biopolymers and their Nanocomposites Dhorali
