Financial accounting 6th edition by David Spiceland, Wayne Thomas, Don Herrmann

All Chapters 1-12

Chapter 1 A Framework for Financial Accounting

REVIEW QUESTIONS

Question 1-1 (LO 1-1)

Accounting is the language of business. Whereas a basic math class might involve adding, subtracting, and solving for unknown variables, accounting involves learning to measure business transactions and communicating those measurements in a format that is generally understood by decision makers.

Question 1-2 (LO 1-1)

Those interested in making decisions about a company include investors, creditors, customers, suppliers, managers, employees, competitors, regulators, tax authorities, and local communities.

Question 1-3 (LO 1-1)

Financial accounting seeks to measure business activities of a company and to communicate those measurements to external parties for decision-making purposes. The two primary external, or outside the firm, users of financial accounting information are investors and creditors. Managerial accounting deals with the methods accountants use to provide information to an organization's internal users, that is, its own managers.

Question 1-4 (LO 1-1)

The two primary functions of financial accounting are to measure business activities of a company and to communicate information about those activities to investors and creditors for decision-making purposes.

Question 1-5 (LO 1-2)

The three basic business activities are financing, investing, and operating activities. Financing activities are transactions that raise cash needed to operate the business, such as issuing stock and borrowing money from a bank. Investing activities typically include the purchase or disposal of long-term resources that are expected to benefit the company for Financial Statement Analysis Thomas R. Robinson, Paul Munter, Julia Grant, 2004 Robinson Munter and Grant's Financial Statement Analysis A Global Perspective is designed especially for users of financial statements. Takes a financial statement analysis perspective. The focus is on the user of financial statements and not the preparer of financial statements. The emphasis is on the analysis and use of financial reports. Knowledge of debits and credits is not required. Emphasizes a global perspective by presenting both International Accounting Standards and U.S. GAAP. Uses a step by step presentation to take students through the financial statement analysis process from understanding the financial statements to valuation. Motorola and Nokia are used as running case examples throughout the text. Additional real world examples are integrated into each chapter as appropriate. Assignment Materials Many of the end of chapter problems have been reproduced from AIMR CFA® examination released questions and sample examinations. Each chapter has a case derived from real company financial statements that can be used for class discussion or student projects. Canadian Advanced Financial Accounting Thomas H.
