The Quest for the Raindrop of Life Excerpt

The sun dazzled¹ in the sky above the barren² as yet another splendid³ summer day. Slumped⁴ against a tree, ten-year-old⁵ Kian flicked⁶ lazily through his favourite book. His brown curls⁷ flopped down over his crystal blue eyes⁸ and he blew them away with a half-hearted puff.

In the distance⁹ faint sounds¹⁰ of village life could be heard¹¹. The local children played happily on their bicycles while their parents bustled about their daily chores of cleaning, cooking and mending¹². Out in the farmers'¹³ fields, workers were dutifully harvesting fresh crops and loading up their carts ready for market. The Barren¹⁴ was a picture of perfection¹⁵ and Kian was contentedly enjoying¹⁶ another day in paradise¹⁷, completely unaware of what was about to happen¹⁸.

Suddenly¹⁹ Kian heard the approaching clip-clopping of a horse's hooves. He looked up and saw a man wearing a tall, pointy hat and flowing dark robe heading from the distance²⁰. Kian kept to the left and walked towards the woods ten years²¹ there had been nothing to the left and nothing there at all. One of the great adventures in his life slipped²² through his long green fingers like sand under his feet. He watched what he saw and knew what he was about to see. His heart was about to stop. He was about to see what he had been told was a sight to behold. He gasped for breath as he watched.

Literacy in Early Childhood and Primary Education Claire McLachlan, 2013 Provides a comprehensive reader friendly introduction to literacy teaching and learning exploring both theoretical underpinnings and practical strategies

Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms Donna Kalmbach Phillips, Mindy Legard Larson, 2015-12-22 Becoming a Teacher of Writing in Elementary Classrooms nurtures teachers' identities as writers, connects to the realities of writing instruction in real and diverse classrooms and encourages critical and creative thinking. This text is about writing instruction as a journey teachers and students embark on together. The focus is on learning how to teach writing through specific teaching and learning structures found in the Writing Studio: mini lessons, teacher and peer conferencing, guided writing and sharing, celebrating and broadcasting writing. Pedagogical features include teaching structures and strategies, Problematising Practice, classroom scenarios, assessment resources and a Companion Website. Because a teacher who views him or herself as a writer is best positioned to implement the Writing Studio, a parallel text Becoming a writer gives readers space to consider who they are as a writer, their personal process as a writer and who they might become as a writer.

A Comparative Study of Writing Abilities in Two Modes at the Grade 5, 8, and 12 Levels Ian Pringle, Aviva Freedman, Ontario. Ministry of Education, Ontario. Ministry of Colleges and Universities, 1985

The third of three studies involving a comparative analysis of transactional and narrative writing of selected samples of students in two Ontario districts, this study addressed questions arising from the earlier studies and examined the writing skills of students in grades 5, 8 and 12. Writing samples were examined for conformity to the norms of story structure and argumentation and the subject matter of the transactional writing was analyzed. The level of affective development manifested in subsamples of both the stories and the arguments was rated. All the papers in the sample were analyzed for syntactic complexity scores and for mechanical and conventional errors. Comparisons of the first and second versions of the papers were made to assess skills in revising and editing. Findings indicated the need of students to learn how to write an argument and to revise a paper. Other implications were: 1 that since the level of difficulty of one aspect of a writing task may decrease the lack of control in another, teachers must take into account the nature of difficulties in the tasks they set students and make their assessments accordingly; 2 that students at all levels should be given occasions to write narratives; 3 that the model of persuasive discourse should be countered; and 4 that writing strategies recommended by authorities need to be implemented.

Form-function Relations in Narrative Development E. Birgitta Svensson, 2018-03-15

This book provides insights into the development toward narrative competence and illustrates multifaceted patterns in the developing capacity to create globally coherent narrative texts. The methodology draws from both a psycholinguistic approach to narrative development, systemic functional linguistics, and writing pedagogy theory. This book extends previous studies on narrative writing development since it provides a multifaceted window into the progression of narrative development from elementary school through secondary school and university to life as a professional journalist and writer. It also shows how narrative writing development is related to the cognitive, emotional, psychological, and social development of the individual.
