

BRIEF OPERATING INSTRUCTIONS

Callout code: 1427

Important Notes

This instruction booklet describes the "Concert" with the CD-Changer and the BOSE Sound System.

The radio system makes it possible to switch between radio, cassette or CD with the minimum number of controls.

The CD-Changer is "remote controlled" by the radio unit.

The cassette can hold up to 60 discs.

Because of that, a great number of individual tracks can easily be used for your favorite effects.

The BOSE Sound System consists mainly of an enlarged speaker system for optimum sound quality.

The system does not require any special operation.
