Augustine City Of God Study Guide:

SCM Studyguide: Christian Mission Stephen Spencer, 2014-04-15 Explores the nature of Christian mission in contemporary post modern society This book examines the main historic types of mission in the Christian tradition seeing how they were forged in the cross currents of history and how they continue to be expressed by different Christian communities

SCM Studyguide Early Christian Doctrine and the Creeds Piotr Ashwin-Siejkowski, 2013-02-11 The SCM Studyguides are becoming increasingly well known recognized and adopted as accessible textbooks for level 1 students who have no prior knowledge of the subject The SCM Studyguide Early Christian Doctrine and the Creeds offers an accessible stimulating and interactive guide book to the emergence of Christian identity with particular attention to the earliest form of the Christian thought and doctrine The author analyses the crucial statements of the early Creeds and rules of faith He explains the creedal statements on the nature of God creation incarnation redemption the Church and eschatology and outlines the theological context which influenced their formulation and later modifications by other texts and authors The Creeds are part of the heritage of all Christian tradition and therefore have to be studied by both theological students and in the context of education for discipleship modules

SCM Studyguide: Christian Doctrine Astley Jeff, 2015-04-21 An accessible textbook for all engaging with Christian doctrine for the first time A valuable resource and suitable for all clergy and all training for ministry

SCM Studyguide: Church History Stephen Spencer, 2013-08-27 An introduction to the study of the ways the church has evolved in its corporate life since its birth in the first century Special attention is given to studying its changing relationship and interaction with the surrounding societies in which it has existed The intended readership will be those training for ministry in English speaking churches so the studyguide will concentrate on those aspects of this subject of most relevance to this group This means there will be greater attention to developments in the West than in the East especially in later centuries and to topics such as the nature of ministry the sacraments places of worship authority in the church and mission These will be examined at each period of church history in each chapter to provide reference points of comparison throughout the book Each chapter will also contain a specific case study presenting extracts of some key documents with notes commentary and questions for discussion to allow readers to develop skills in historical research General discussion questions and reading lists will be provided at the end of each chapter The final chapter will provide guidance for the study of the history of the student's own church and community

Defending and Defining the Faith Daniel H. Williams, 2020 In Early Christian Apologetics D H Williams offers a first comprehensive presentation of Christian apologetic literature from the second to the fifth century CE Williams argues that most apologies were not directed at a pagan readership In most cases ancient apologetics had a double object to instruct the Christian and persuade weak Christians or non Christians who were sympathetic to Christian claims Taken cumulatively he finds apologetic literature was integral to the formation of the Christian identity in the Roman world
