
Auditing and Attestation Practice

Questions for the CPA Exam 2023 & Answer Key Verified

The auditing and attestation (AUD) test on the CPA exam requires students to learn and use a great deal of technical language. Audit opinions (also called audit reports) document whether or not a set of financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit opinion is signed by the CPA and provided to the client under audit.

The language in audit opinions is very specific. Take time to understand and memorize that language.

1. A CPA should not submit unaudited financial statements of a nonpublic company to a client or others unless, at a minimum, the CPA complies with the provisions applicable to
 - A. Compilation engagements.
 - B. Review engagements.
 - C. Statements on auditing standards.
 - D. Attestation standards.

Answer: A. An accountant should not submit such information unless he or she has, at a minimum, complied with the provisions applicable to a compilation engagement.

1. Carmel Department Store has an ERP information system and is planning to issue credit cards to creditworthy customers.

To strengthen internal controls by making it difficult for one to create a valid customer account number, the company's independent auditor has suggested the inclusion of a check digit, which should be placed

- A. At the beginning of a valid account number only.
- B. In the middle of a valid account number only.
- C. At the end of a valid account number only.
- D. Consistently in any position.
