U.S. Immigration Policy and the Undocumented Helene Hayes, 2001-07-30 Hayes analyzes the situation of undocumented immigrants in the U S and what happens to them in the aftermath of implementation of two key provisions of the 1986 Immigration Reform and Control Act IRCA legalization and employer sanctions Referred to by legislators as a generous and compassionate bill that would legalize much of the undocumented population in our midst it resulted instead in placing a highly vulnerable silent subclass in deeper jeopardy Hayes traces the history of undocumented immigration Congressional debate and implementation of IRCA and provides direct access to the faces of the undocumented through original empirical research on the social and economic impact of IRCA on specific groups of undocumented Haitian Irish and Salvadoran immigrants The general theme is America s ambivalence towards its historic lifeline new immigrants whether legal or undocumented and how the two central provisions of IRCA uniquely embodied within the same piece of legislation contradictory and ambivalent attitudes toward immigrants which became the seeds of its implementation difficulties Hayes looks at the issue of undocumented immigration from a legislative policy human rights and implementation perspective but she also points beyond national strategies to push factors emanating from the home countries of the undocumented and makes the case that undocumented immigration is a global social problem that needs global solutions The book is of particular interest to policy makers scholars and other researchers and students involved with social policy and welfare immigration law and ethnic studies

Immigrant and Refugee Children and Families Alan J. Dettlaff, Rowena Fong, 2016-05-31 Designed for students of social work public policy ethnic studies community development and migration studies Immigrant and Refugee Children and Families provides the best knowledge for culturally responsive practice with immigrant children adolescents and families This textbook summarizes the unique circumstances of Asian Pacific Islander Latino South Asian African and Middle Eastern immigrant and refugee populations and the challenges faced by the social service systems including child welfare juvenile justice education health and mental health care that attempt to serve them Each chapter features key terms study questions and resource lists and the book meets many Council on Social Work Education Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS competencies The book addresses the policy landscape affecting immigrant and refugee children in the United States and a final section examines current and future approaches to advocacy

The Tribune Almanac and Political Register, 1879 Studies in Law, Politics, and Society Austin Sarat, 2020-09-04 This special issue of Studies in Law Politics and Society examines how law understands the past Topics covered include the use of legal language to dehumanize slaves in the eighteenth century the use of history by lawyers and judges to justify existing law or make changes to the law during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries
