2015 Rhodes Prospectus

Léo Pomar

2015 Rhodes Prospectus:

From Pen to Pixel Patrizia Fortini, Krupali Krusche, 2021-01-31 Efforts to build, rebuild and maintain the Forum Romanum Rome's historic urban epicenter are likely as old as the place itself, some 2800 years. As a result, the historic significance and archaeological richness of the Forum cannot be overestimated. Despite its many changes, the Forum Romanum's survival today represents an outstanding example of cultural heritage continuity. Its highest possible protection status among monuments conservation agencies in Italy and its early listing on UNESCO's World Heritage List in 1980 are testaments to this. Due to its remarkable physical survival, the Forum Romanum has been the object of extensive research, documentation, restoration, and preservation efforts over the past two centuries, especially. The sophistication of these measures evolved to include a wide range of expertise. Lay interest among antiquarians and architects in Rome's past from the Renaissance through the eighteenth century was supplanted by the emerging new disciplines of archaeology, architectural restoration, and museology. From the late nineteenth century, corresponding advancements in archaeological method and conservation theory and science were increasingly applied. From this time on, as well, expectations for preserving and presenting the Forum Romanum were high, the famous site being a matter of intense Roman pride, political interest, and serving as a must-see destination for visitors to Rome. Leading historians, archaeologists, and conservators have been central to the story of the Forum's survival and interpretation. While numerous noted antiquarians and historians preceded him, the architect and archaeologist Giacomo Boni (1859-1925) was unusual, even prescient, in his approach and treatment of the place during his tenure as director of excavations of the Forum Romanum from 1898 until 1925. His combined talents as an architect, archaeologist, and conservator set a standard at the time for careful research, thorough documentation, and responsible conservation measures. The sponsors of the DHARMA conference have wisely chosen to focus on archaeological research and conservation in the Forum during Giacomo Boni's tenure, since his work reflects early best practices in researching, preserving, and interpreting such places. To frame the discussion, some precedents and influences of the work of Giacomo Boni are offered.

Handbook on Green Growth Roger Fouquet, 2019 Economies around the world have arrived at a critical juncture to continue to grow fuelled by fossil fuels and exacerbate climate change, or to move towards more sustainable, greener growth. Choosing the latter is shown to help address climate change as well as present new economic opportunities. This Handbook provides a deeper understanding of the concept of green growth and highlights key lessons from the experience of green transformations across the world following a decade of ambitious stimulus packages and green reforms.

Finance, Law, and the Courts Marco Lamandini, David Ramos Muñoz, 2023-11-09 Law and courts are often neglected in finance. The discipline is so permeated by economic analysis that the enforcement of its rules is often based on regulatory authorities that it often seems more natural to speak of financial regulation rather than financial law de emphasizing the role of courts Authored by leading experts in commercial law Finance Law and the Courts goes beyond this limited perspective The book demonstrates that law and courts are essential in providing finance with the certainty it needs to operate and the elasticity it needs to evolve As explored in Part I of the book these benefits result from law s status as an interpretative construct formed by rules and principles a construct shaped by a need for consistency When principles collide courts are often called to solve hard cases and in doing so the Law of Finance evolves Examining such hard cases Parts II and III analyze courts roles in influencing finance s key concepts and principles For Public Law this includes the impact of sovereign immunity separation of powers or individual rights on the justiciability of financial acts central banks mandates and the interplay between regulatory concepts and fundamental rights For Private Law these include the foundations of liability for misstatements the validity and interpretation of financial contracts and creditor creditor conflict The book further explores the interplay between specialist and generalist courts and other bodies in Part IV concluding with a case for limited specialization of finance justice in the EU Offering a comprehensive legal treatment of finance s regulatory sources this book is an unparalleled resource for law academics practitioners and policymakers seeking to better understand the complex financial cases that they may encounter

The Year Without a World Series Robert C. Cottrell,2023-09-06 The 1994 Major League Baseball season promised to be memorable Long standing batting and pitching standards were threatened including the revered single season home run record The Montreal Expos and New York Yankees were delivering remarkable campaigns In August acting commissioner Bud Selig called a halt to the season amid the League s latest labor dispute The shutdown led to a lockout as well as cancellation of more than 900 regular season games the scheduled expanded rounds of playoffs and that year s World Series Like all labor struggles it was fundamentally about control of salaries of players ability to decide their own fates and of the game itself This book chronicles Major League Baseball s turbulent 94 season and its ripple effects It highlights earlier labor struggles and the roles performed by individuals from John Montgomery Ward David Fultz and Robert Murphy to Marvin Miller Andy Messersmith Jim Catfish Hunter and Donald Fehr Also examined are the ballplayers own organizations from the Players League of the early 1890s to the still potent Major League Baseball Players Association doing battle with team owners and their representatives
