I. Contents of getting administrative assistant performance appraisal

=====

For the most part, administrative assistants handle the clerical duties in an office. They may answer phones, schedule appointments, draft memos and file documents, depending on the employer. Like any position in an organization, admins (as they're sometimes called) come up for performance reviews. Normally direct supervisors, such as an administrative services manager or an administrative support director, conduct these reviews. At the same time, assistants who work closely with senior managers are often evaluated by these top executives themselves.

Communication Component

With many administrative assistants handling the phones and other correspondence for an organization, it isn't uncommon for reviews to assess an employee's aptitude for communication. For example, demeanor on the phone — both internally and externally — could factor into an admin's performance assessment. The same could be said for courteousness to visitors or clients, timeliness of messages to their intended recipients and grammatical correctness of memos, letters, transcriptions and other correspondence.

Scheduling Section

Administrative assistants often manage the calendars of the executives they assist, so a scheduling component also may be included in the review. Beyond accurately noting appointments and meetings, admins should be able to schedule enough time between engagements to allow the executive to get from one place to another. The ability to schedule also
