National Audit Office,2009 The Department for Work and Pensions has made progress in reducing the number of leaflets that it produces for its customers and in making application forms simpler and shorter The Department has significantly changed the way in which it provides information in recent years with a growth in telephone enquiries and in online provision The Department has reduced the quantity of leaflets that it produces for customers from 208 different leaflets in 2005 at a cost of 10.3 million to 53 leaflets in 2008 costing 1.7 million It has also reduced the length of most of its forms though some are unnecessarily long and guidance notes are complicated and the Department s computer generated letters are overly long and confusing for customers The Department has put telephone calls at the centre of its application process It is also increasingly using the internet to communicate with customers In response to the rise in applications for the Jobseeker s Allowance up by 81 per cent in the six months to January 2009 the Department plans to implement systems giving customers the option of full online applications for contributory Jobseeker s Allowance from summer 2009 rather than February 2010 as originally planned Cost efficiencies from online provision have still to be realised fully Though forms can be downloaded from the
