Caccia & sport, Advertising Culture and Translation Rosanna Masiola, 2017-03-07 This book is the first comprehensive study combining and integrating advertising culture and translation within the framework of colonial Commonwealth and postcolonial studies and globalization. It addresses a number of controversial issues evident in two relatively young disciplines as a result of decades of research and teaching in university courses A cross cultural approach to translational issues and the translatability of advertising cohesively is adopted here exploring the dynamics of the conflict between the centre and the periphery It introduces the concept of advertising English as lingua franca AELF marking new trends in the domain of varieties of English around the world VEAW The data examined here show the ambivalent polarity conditioning advertising and translation both have been mutually exclusive and both have been subject to bans censorship and ideological control racism propaganda and stereotyping In their fundamental principles and concepts of theories and applications however neither discipline cannot exist outside a free market and total freedom of expression and trust
