Q. What are the consequences of being "overly aggressive" and "overzealous" during the litigation process? What are the consequences of being "overzealous" during the litigation process?	Consequences of being "overly aggressive" and "overzealous" during the litigation process can be significant. For example, if a plaintiff's attorney is overly aggressive and "overzealous" during the litigation process, they may be perceived as being "aggressive" and "overzealous" by the court, which can result in negative consequences for the plaintiff. For example, the court may rule in favor of the defendant, or the defendant may be awarded damages. Additionally, the plaintiff's attorney may be held liable for attorney fees or costs if the court rules in favor of the defendant.
