departure of Heide Gerstenberger's path breaking work is a critique of structural functionalist theory of the state in both its modernisation theory and materialist variants Prof Gerstenberger opposes to these a historical theoretical explanation that proceeds from the long term structuring effect of concrete social practice This is elucidated by detailed investigation of the development of bourgeois state power in the two key examples of England and France The different complexions that the bourgeois state assumed are presented as the results of processes of social and cultural formation and thus irreducible to a simple function of capitalism This approach culminates in the thesis that the bourgeois form of capitalist state power arose only where capitalist societies developed out of already rationalised structures of the Ancien Régime type *The New

Litowitz,1997 The author presents a two tiered analysis that views postmodern legal thought as both a collective intellectual movement and as the work of particular theorists notably Friedrich Nietzsche Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Francois Lyotard and Richard Rorty He concludes that even though postmodern thought does not give rise to a normative theory of right that can be used as a framework for deciding cases it can focus attention on genealogy and discourse and can empower those who have been denied a voice in the legal system Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Water
