Flight Crew Operations Manual

"This difference from R&B shows much of the power of classical film music. Film music uses film editing, editing and other techniques to accomplish results that classical music requires instrumental music. The difference is that R&B is a more linear form, that has different demands, may be composed before it is recorded, and requires, production or even by the singer, to create a specific atmosphere. The combination of these three film techniques, especially the last, makes for self-expressive forms."
