A Text From Heaven:

Text Messages From Heaven Desjean Peyton Jones, 2021-03-31 Text Messages from Heaven is an inspiring work led by the Holy Spirit With its beginning as encouraging text messages to ten friends turned into more than 800 weekly These messages are shared to encourage every reader that God still reaches into every situation to remind us that we are His greatest concern His mercy endures forever even through a text message The Mysticism of Hebrews Jody A.

Barnard, 2012 Revised thesis Ph D Bangor University North Wales 2011 A Text from Heaven James F. Winter, 2014-03 James Winter had an unsettling feeling that he needed to write another book after finishing his first one Baptism by Toilet Water But he did not know just what it was he was suppose to write So he turned to prayer to consult God Two weeks after his prayer he had an incredible dream Unlike the usual dream this dream was entirely in neatly written text The contents of this text which he immediately wrote down left him with no other choice but to begin writing immediately His book deals with some of the most thought provoking concerns that Christians have such as finding the path God intended for them to follow Winter stresses the importance of getting to know God making him central in your life and working toward finding a solution to future problems that threaten our world The author reveals how his dream contains an urgent message from God for all who believe in him "A Knot Worth Unloosing" John H. Duff, 2019-01-21 In the study of Christian eschatological thought virtually no attention has been given to past interpretations of the biblical phrase the new heavens and earth John Duff uncovers the interpretations of this phrase that were extant in seventeenth century England These interpretations fall into two basic camps those that understood the phrase metaphorically and those that understood the phrase literally Some English divines believed the new heavens and earth referred to the new age of the gospel that commenced in the first century CE At that time God flung open the doors of salvation to Gentiles while at the same time bringing judgment to the Jewish nation for its failure to recognize and embrace Jesus as Messiah This epic transition was fittingly described as a new heavens and earth A second group of English interpreters believed the phrase stood for a yet future time when the political and religious circumstances of the world would change for the betterment of the church for one thousand years The new heavens and earth stood for a future millennium in which Christ would establish his reign over the world prior to the day of resurrection and final judgment Theologians who accepted a literal understanding believed the new heavens and earth described the renovation of the physical creation at the final judgment Among this group differences of opinion existed with respect to how much of the world would need cleansing what creatures would be restored and of what use would a renovated world serve The idea that the earth and not heaven would be the final abode of the saints emerged among a few obscure writers Texts and Studies, 1897 People's Commentary on the Gospel According to John Edwin Wilbur Rice, 1893
