Schreiner,2025-04-15 In the Schreiner household conversations about creation evolution and ecology happen more often than normal Schreiner teaches biblical studies and his brother in law is a biologist And both teach at institutions of Christian higher education However when Schreiner s family was able to take a trip to Gal pagos Islands in 2023 and 2024 his interpretive conclusions on the Bible s creation texts shifting positions on ecology and general moral responsibility as a Christian collided in a palpable way Inspired by a range of experiences from mingling with sea lions to taking water ferries across the Pacific to snorkeling with sharks Schreiner jovially shares experiences and musings that testify to his shifting positions on these matters his frustrations with the usual conversations and whether he thinks there can be true irenic conversation between Christians and scientists Informed blunt sometimes snarky but always honest Schreiner s musings will likely resonate with anyone who travels with their family or wants to be honest about the many variables that must inform a Christian s position on issues of creation evolution and ecology Filter Bubbles and Targeted Advertising The New York Times Editorial Staff,2019-07-15 Over a decade ago tech companies began using algorithms to personalize our experience of the web Using sophisticated technology and vast amounts of consumer data companies began to predict our tastes better than we could ourselves In response ecommerce expanded and journalism adapted itself to the personalized attention economy However there was a hidden side effect which Eli Pariser termed the filter bubble which is the exclusion of other perspectives from our tech assisted preferences Raising many hard questions including data security political propaganda and the pervasiveness of digital junk food filter bubbles reveal the future challenges of a personalized automated web Features such as media literacy questions and terms enhance this collection encouraging readers to analyze reporting styles and devices
