Children in Police Custody Miranda Bevan,2024-01-04 Drawing on the first comprehensive study in England and Wales to review the police custody process from the perspective of children Bevan traces the child's journey from arrest through detention and interview to release or remand A rights based approach is used to evaluate the effectiveness of the protection under the present legal framework     Emplaced Belief Jay Johnston,Marion Gibson,Jamie Hampson,Nicola Whyte,2026-01-01 Emplaced Belief is an innovative interdisciplinary volume that explores the conceptual and lived relations between the academic fields of religion and heritage The Contributors adopt a wholistic approach to consider emplacement a broad interrelation of objects peoples histories and places in the analysis of relations between religion and heritage To be emplaced is to be situated yet such positioning is the result of multiple conscious and unconscious forces agencies discourses and epistemologies The volume's title refers not only to physical locations of import but also to the role of cultural practices and religious epistemologies in the establishment of religious heritage the act of emplacement That is the religious social political and cultural practices that denote heritage and the dynamics that revise reinforce or remove any such attribution

Livelihoods of Ethnic Minorities in Rural Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker,Patience Chadambuka,Joshua Matanzima,2022-04-21 The book provides empirically rich case studies of the lives and livelihoods of marginalised ethnic minorities in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe with a specific focus on diverse rural areas It demonstrates the dynamic and complex relationships existing between ethnic minorities and livelihoods and analyses the ways in which projects of belonging and identity formation amongst these ethnic minorities are entangled in their respective livelihood construction projects and vice versa The ethnic minorities include those considered indigenous to Zimbabwe and those often defined as aliens including ethnicities with a transnational presence in southern Africa The ethnicities studied in the book include the following Chewa Doma Tonga Tshwa San Shangane Basotho Nduu Hlengwe and Nambya By studying their livelihoods in particular this book offers the first full manuscript about ethnic minorities in Zimbabwe In doing so it highlights the significance of these ethnic minorities to Zimbabwean history politics and society     Monetary Wisdom Thomas Li-Ping Tang,2024-05-16 Money is the instrument of commerce and a measure of value Globalization has created economic prosperity for citizens around the world These challenges have changed how people work live and do business Monetary Wisdom Monetary Aspirations and Decision Making presents an excellent collection of innovative and a multi cultural view of how money has affected decision making not only at an individual level but at organizational level This book discusses the powerful motivators of money and the connection to ethical decision making both in organizations and social life Inspires readers to learn one of the world's most often used money attitude measures Notices that in modern societies money is power at the individual level Suggests that monetary aspirations not money itself predict cheating Profiles that reducing stress curbs dishonesty directly and indirectly Illustrates that leaders promote employees honesty and creativity Reveals how corruption expands prospect theory to a global level Explores the contexts to achieve balanced aspirations and serenity

Addictive Consumption Gerda Reith,2018-09-03 In this engaging new book Gerda Reith explores key theoretical concepts in the sociology of consumption Drawing on the ideas of Foucault Marx and Bataille amongst others she investigates the ways that understandings of the problems of consumption change over time and asks what these changes can tell us about their wider social and political contexts Through this she uses ideas about both consumption and addiction to explore issues around identity and desire excess and control and reason and disorder She also assesses how our concept of normal consumption has grown out of efforts to regulate behaviour historically considered as disruptive or deviant and how in the contemporary world the dark side of consumption has been medicalised in terms of addiction pathology and irrationality By drawing on case studies of drugs food and gambling the volume demonstrates the ways in which modern practices of consumption are rooted in historical processes and embedded in geopolitical structures of power It not only asks how modern consumer culture came to be in the form it is today but also questions what its various manifestations can tell us about wider issues in capitalist modernity Addictive Consumption offers a compelling new perspective on the origins development and problems of consumption in modern society The volume's interdisciplinary profile will appeal to scholars and students in sociology psychology history philosophy and anthropology
