Energy Transformation towards Sustainability Manuela Tvaronaciene, Beata Slusarczyk, 2019-10-21 Energy Transformation towards Sustainability explores how researchers, businesses, and policymakers can explore and usefully improve energy systems and energy consumption behavior both to reflect the reality of climate change and related environmental degradation and to adapt to the expanding periphery of renewable energy technologies. It introduces the reader to a suite of potential policy pathways to the necessary transformation in societal energy consumption, usage, and behavior. Solutions discussed include energy efficiency, energy security, the role of political leadership, green public policy, and the transition to renewable energy sources. International contributions address the range and depth of current research from a position of advocacy for energy stewardship as the driver of this transformation. Case studies illustrate the range of various countries to diminish energy use. Finally, policy avenues are covered in depth. Reviews the interrelationship between economic growth, energy consumption, and climate change. Uses a wide variety of case studies to support practical implementation across national energy systems. Highlights a wide spectrum of urgent issues including threats related to energy use and secure and sustainable development. Contains contributions that reflect a breadth and depth of scholarship from international backgrounds.

Foreign Direct Investment in Latin America and the Caribbean 2017 United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean, 2018-01-15 This publication sets out and analyses the main foreign direct investment (FDI) trends in the countries of Latin America and the Caribbean. The 2017 edition shows that the region is at a difficult juncture. FDI inflows declined by 7.9% in 2016 to US $167,043 billion, representing a cumulative fall of 17.0% since the peak in 2011. The fall in commodity prices continues to affect investments in natural resources. Sluggish economic growth in several countries has slowed the flow of market-seeking capital and the global backdrop of technological sophistication and expansion of the digital economy has concentrated transnational investments in developed economies.
