The organizational home in the Society of Pediatric Psychology Section V of the Division of Clinical Psychology of the American Psychological Association and its publication archive, Journal of Pediatric Psychology. Such classics help capture the richness and excitement that portrays the field. Noting the continuing need for resources to serve the specialty, the Executive Committee of the Society of Pediatric Psychology authorized the sponsorship of publication of the Handbook of Pediatric Psychology (Routh, 1988) as a synthesis of the field by expert chapter authors. The Society then appointed a committee led by C. Eugene Walker and Annette M. La Greca to develop a series of biennial volumes entitled Advances in Pediatric Psychology. Searls, 1997) This monograph describes the third edition of the Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children WISC-III and its relationship to reading learning disabilities. It is designed for educators and students in education who want to go beyond the numerical values of the WISC-III intelligence quotients and understand the implications of the scores for the assessment and instruction of individual students. Chapter 1 discusses the use of intelligence tests and the WISC-III. The organization and administration of the WISC-III are addressed in Chapter 2. Chapter 3 describes each subtest as to the task involved, what purportedly is being measured, method of scoring, possible implications of high and low scores, and suggested relationships to reading. Chapter 4 presents procedures for analyzing WISC-III scores as a means of generating hypotheses about students' cognitive strengths and weaknesses that may affect reading ability. The final chapter discusses the research base by providing an overview of the research literature on the WISC series and reading learning disabilities. Appendices include a WISC-III record form, a WISC-III data sheet, and an evaluation form that includes abilities measured by two or more WISC-III subtests. Contains 74 references. CR Teacher's Directory of Reading Skill Aids and Materials (Emerald V. Dechant, 1981) Behavioral Intervention for Young Children with Autism (Catherine Maurice, Gina Green, Stephen C.
