Failure Vicki E. Alger, 2016-07-01 A comprehensive account and frank assessment of federal involvement in education is long overdue Education policy expert Vicki E Alger remedies this deficiency with her book Failure The Federal Miseducation of America's Children As its title indicates Failure makes no effort to sugar coat its findings Created in 1979 after a lobbying campaign that spanned generations the Department of Education has failed to live up to its promises Federal involvement whether related to testing funding or academic curricula has failed to abide by the Constitution's implication that education must remain the domain only of state and local governments and private institutions Most of all the central government's pervasive meddling in education has failed America's school children and their parents Education policy has long been mired in controversies often with opposing sides missing the mark Failure helps us step back from the skirmish du jour and redirects our focus to the big picture showing us what's gone wrong over the decades and the institutional causes of these failures It also offers a bold blueprint for returning the federal government to its constitutional role and for cultivating an educational system that meets the needs of students and parents rather than bureaucrats Concerned citizens of every stripe will benefit from Failure's history of federal education policy its brutally honest report card for the Department of Education its look at education systems across the globe and its ambitious policy recommendations Failure might even succeed in reframing the way the federal education establishment thinks about education policy

Drawing Futures Bob Sheil, Frédéric Migayrou, Luke Pearson, Laura Allen, 2016-11-11 Drawing Futures brings together international designers and artists for speculations in contemporary drawing for art and architecture Despite numerous developments in technological manufacture and computational design that provide new grounds for designers the act of drawing still plays a central role as a vehicle for speculation There is a rich and long history of drawing tied to innovations in technology as well as to revolutions in our philosophical understanding of the world In reflection of a society now underpinned by computational networks and interfaces allowing hitherto unprecedented views of the world the changing status of the drawing and its representation as a political act demands a platform for reflection and innovation Drawing Futures will present a compendium of projects writings and interviews that critically reassess the act of drawing and where its future may lie Drawing Futures focuses on the discussion of how the field of drawing may expand synchronously alongside technological and computational developments The book coincides with an international conference of the same name taking place at The Bartlett School of Architecture UCL in November 2016 Bringing together practitioners from many creative fields the book discusses how drawing is changing in relation to new technologies for the production and dissemination of ideas

The Working Papers of Hugo Grotius Martine Julia van Ittersum, 2024-05-27 The Working Papers of Hugo Grotius is the first full length study of the handwritten documents initially used by the author of Mare Liberum 1609 and De Jure Belli ac Pacis 1625 in his day to day activities as a scholar lawyer and politician but subsequently incorporated into his own or other archives Martine van Ittersum reconstructs a process of transmission dispersal and loss that started during Grotius lifetime and ended with the papers auction in 1864 This is also a study of archival afterlives Our understanding of Grotius life and work is shaped by the conscious decisions of previous generations to retain or discard documents frequently for the sake of individual lives and careers family honour and or larger political and religious ends
