

Argumentative Essay Outline on Abortion

1. Introduction

- Right to abortion and its limitations are a matter of active debate.
- Main opposing viewpoints are: complete freedom of abortion and ban on abortion.
- Thesis statement: Extra counseling on abortion, without banning it, could be agreeable for both parties.

2. 'Pro life' arguments:

- Fetus' life should be preserved at all costs: which is understandable when speaking about live beings.
- Religious taboos: this is important for many people.

3. 'Pro choice' arguments:

- Mother's personal freedom must not be restricted: obviously, people have rights to their bodies.
- Banning abortions is an attack on women: understandable because this would lead to illegal abortions, which introduce great risks.

4. Common ground: Banning abortions is an extreme measure. However, it could help if women would receive extra counseling before making such a choice, including some extra options such as adoption.

5. Conclusion

- Both sides of this dispute have valid arguments.
- Some common ground might be found for both sides, such as extra counseling, without prohibition.
- Call to action: it is important to find an acceptable solution for everyone!
