Pro refrigerio animae: Death and Memory in East-Central Europe Angela Jianu, Gheorghe Lazăr, 2023-08-04 The historiography of death memory and testamentary practices is already abundant in Western Europe and a fairly large number of extra European regions. For East Central Europe there are many short studies in various regional languages mainly on anthropological ethnographic aspects of the funeral rituals. This is an edited collection of studies by international scholars on the interlocking themes of attitudes and discourses on death commemorative practices and inheritance testamentary strategies in the Balkans and East Central Europe. These and other related themes are addressed comparatively and cover areas including Albania, Bulgaria, Romania, Greece and areas of the former Yugoslavia, Hungary and Austria from the perspective of imperial Ottoman and Habsburg legacies. Pro refrigerio animae: Death and Memory in East Central Europe contributes to this subject by linking anthropological, religious, cultural approaches to death to the legal, economic aspects of inheritance commemoration, adding a still absent East Central European and Habsburg Balkan and Ottoman dimension to the study of death memorialization and testaments and presenting an abundant primary and secondary material in English translation and thus placing research on death and testaments by East Central and Greek scholars within the international scholarly circuit.

Memory Work Mary E. Triece, 2024-10-23 In the early twentieth century white controlled magazines and Black magazines told very different stories about the dynamics of race, sex, and power in the United States. Memory Work: White Ignorance and Black Resistance in Popular Magazines 1900-1910 examines how popular magazines employed rhetorical strategies to remember, forget, and frame America's racist past. White controlled magazines such as the Independent Outlook, Arena, and McClure's carried stories of southern nostalgia, union reconciliation, and white purity. Relying on willful ignorance to misremember past experiences of suffering, these texts severed violent histories from present day policies and often simply remained silent. Meanwhile, in Black magazines such as the Colored American Magazine and the Voice of the Negro, women writers leveraged countermemory, bringing Black women's accomplishments into focus. These writers inverted popular white narratives that erased and obscured Black women's experiences, including those of sexual violence. Mary E. Triece traces how white and Black magazines often engaged in dialogue with one another, differently engaged memory work to either reinforce or upend white supremacy during a period of both Black advancement and white backlash. Further, the book suggests lines of connection between the construction of public memory in the past to those taking place today across an array of media platforms. Popular debates whether appearing in early 1900s magazines or on twenty-first century social media sites shape a culture's collective knowledge of what counts as true, important, and worthy of attention.

The Remaking of Memory in the Age of the Internet and Social Media Qi Wang, Andrew Hoskins, 2024 In this book, the leading international scholars of memory studies synthesize emerging social and cognitive science research on the impact of social media and the Internet on remembering and forgetting. They address methodological issues in studying memory in the digital age and examine whether human memory is being threatened by a shift from a healthy reliance to a dependency on technology The book aims to build theoretical and empirical foundations for further research to understand the consequences of the Internet and social media for memory representation expression and socialization in individuals and the implications for the family community and society Remaking Holocaust Memory Liat Steir-Livny,2019-04-18 Since the late 1990s in Israel third generation Holocaust survivors have become the new custodians of cultural memory and the documentary films they produce play a major role in shaping a societal consensus of commemoration In Remaking Holocaust Memory a pioneering analysis of third generation Holocaust documentaries in Israel Liat Steir Livny co recipient of the 2019 Young Scholar Award given jointly by the Association of Israel Studies and the Israel Institute investigates compelling films that have been screened in Israel Europe and the United States appeared in numerous international film festivals and won international awards but have yet to receive significant academic attention Steir Livny s comprehensive investigation reveals how the absolute truths that appeared in the majority of second generation films are deconstructed and disputed in the newer films which do not dismiss their cinematic parents approach but rather rethink fixed notions extend the debates and pose questions where previously there had been exclamation marks Steir Livny also explores the ways in which the third generation s perspectives on Holocaust memory govern cinematic trends and aesthetic choices and how these might impact the moral recollection of the past Finally Remaking Holocaust Memory serves as an excellent reference tool as it helpfully lists all of the second and third generation films available as well as the festival screenings and awards they have garnered

Maya Angelou Mary Jane Lupton,2016-01-18 This book presents the extraordinary life and writings of Maya Angelou It examines the changing viewpoints in her six autobiographies within the context of women s and African American autobiographies with specific reference to the slave narrative and to contemporary fiction and film Maya Angelou The Iconic Self examines this iconic artist s work as an autobiographer offering an up to date assessment of Angelou s contributions to American literature and to American and international culture This is the only book to interpret Angelou s autobiographies as unique experiments in the history of black narrative It attests to Angelou s creativity in transforming the typical single volume autobiography into a six volume personal and cultural adventure that tells the truth but reads like fiction The narratives cover the years from the Great Depression 1941 to the days following the assassinations of Malcolm X 1965 and Martin Luther King 1968 emphasizing Angelou s roles as mother daughter granddaughter wife and friend This revised edition also presents information about Maya Angelou s funeral and her continuing legacy since her death in 2014 The depth and scope of the book s observations regarding Angelou s autobiographies will be of great interest to readers seeking an analysis of the interconnections among Angelou s writings as well as serve students taking courses in women s studies or black culture studies Awards, Honors and Prizes Cengage Gale,Gale Group,2000 Mapping Memory Kaitlin M. Murphy,2018-10-02 In Mapping Memory Kaitlin M Murphy investigates the use of memory as a means of contemporary sociopolitical intervention Mapping Memory focuses specifically on visual case studies including documentary film photography performance new media and physical places of memory from sites ranging from the Southern Cone to Central America and the U S Mexican borderlands Murphy develops new frameworks for analyzing how visual culture performs as an embodied agent of memory and witnessing arguing that visuality is inherently performative By analyzing the performative elements or strategies of visual texts such as embodiment reenactment haunting and the performance of material objects and places Murphy elucidates how memory is both anchored in and extracted from specific bodies objects and places Drawing together diverse theoretical strands Murphy originates the theory of memory mapping which tends to the ways in which memory is strategically deployed in order to challenge official narratives that often neglect or designate as transgressive certain memories or experiences Ultimately Murphy argues memory mapping is a visual strategy to ask and to challenge why certain lives are rendered visible and thus grievable and others not     Awards, Honors and Prizes Gale Group,2001-07
